FOREWORD

The "Scroll of the Wolves" of 1938 is a special endeavor of the seniors to publish the events, activities and achievements of Algoma High School students in our quest of "the good life."

By pointing the way, our instructors inspire us to enjoy the best in all the arts, to cultivate satisfying hobbies, to enter into civic enterprise, to feel a tenderness for good home life and to appreciate the beauty of a radiant personality and a stalwart character.

It is our belief that what we have learned in our high school days will help us to find "the good life."

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Every organization must have a leader or leaders who are well fitted to manage that organization. They must have intelligence of a high degree, initiative, and an understanding of human nature.

Such is our board of education, which through its co-operation and understanding has given us the educational opportunities which we so enjoyed. By our best use of these advantages we can show our appreciation of the work done by the administrators of our school.

DEDICATION

To the citizens of Algoma, we, the senior class of 1938 gratefully dedicate this volume of the "The Scroll of the Wolves". Our deepest appreciation is expressed to those, who by their vision and interest in the welfare of the young people of this community have provided the splendid building we have been privileged to enjoy during the past three years in high school.

To approach Algoma High School, is to be inspired by its beauty of architecture and landscape. We are filled with a desire to high achievement in order to be worthy of the efforts of our parents and patrons of the school who have sacrificed to make our education in ideal surroundings possible.

We thank the citizens of this community for the many happy memories which we take with us from our years of school life and trust that we may compensate them for what we have received by our worth-while service to Algoma.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

About seventy of our students are leaving the Algoma High School having completed their four year course.

At such a time one is moved to regret the parting because it is evident that thereafter those, who were intimately associated in daily activity, can meet only on rare occasions. There is a pathos in this thought that makes all of us linger to press each other's hand. At the same time it was known to all, that it must come about, that we must part. We have a mission to perform in life, a destiny to live. It is a law of life. Every mother regrets the passing of the childhood days of her baby yet not one would really want her little one to remain a child indefinitely. In this same way, we, who have grown to mature stature both physically and mentally, having discovered the change in ourselves, realize that we must move on to new fields of work.

What this work will be will depend on our ability. How high each one of us will climb depends not alone on accidental opportunity. In many cases it will depend on the resourcefulness of our imagination and, above all, our willingness to work hard, to make sacrifices in order to prepare ourselves more adequately for our place in productive enterprise.

Whatever may become our position, great or obscure, we will have the opportunity to do our best. If we will apply ourselves diligently, we will, each one of us, share in the benefits that our richly endowed country has always given to every industrious youth. Depressions have come, depressions have gone, and new ones appear, but America has always found a place for anybody who had the perseverance to keep on trying.

As the curtain closes on the drama of the high school days of the senior class, we join with the Board of Education, and the faculty in extending to them our congratulations and best wishes for real success.

ALGOMA HIGH SCHOOL

SCHOLARSHIP KEY AWARDS

The Board of Education, to encourage all students to strive for excellency in their courses of study, has instituted an award of merit called the scholarship key.

Each senior qualifying must have a minimum of ten grade points per semester of their attendance at high school. All final averages with the grade of A will receive three grade points; B, two grade points; and C, one grade point.

The members of the graduating classes who earn the key constitute the Scholarship Key Society of Algoma High School. The honor graduates of 1938 who will receive awards are: Milton Behn, Arvilla Serrahn, Richard Delorit, Frances Corroy, Rita Cumber, and Orville Ross.

NATIONAL AWARD RECEIVED

The 1937 "Scroll of the Wolves" yearbook, a member of the National Scholastic Press Association, was awarded on November 1, 1937, a First-Class Honor Rating, Excellent.

The National Yearbook Critical Service of the National Scholastic Press Association is conducted by the Department of Journalism of the University of Minnesota. The object of the association is to make possible cooperative effort on the part of scholastic editors for the continual improvement of school publications so that they may better serve the cause of education and the individual institutions they represent.

The official organ of the association is the magazine "The Scholastic Editor," in which Algoma's "Scroll of the Wolves" was listed in the November issue, with the mimeographed annuals receiving first-class honor rating.

Officers of the 1937 annual staff were: editor, Ruth Nell; assistant editors, Donald Heidmann and Ruth Wawirka; business manager, Caroline Rider, with Miss A. Higgins as adviser.

JUNIORS

Late in September of the year 1935, a group of frontier freshmen entered the portals of the new and beautiful high school. They didn't look quite so green and scared because the school was new to everyone.

After the first year of fun and study they turned out to be a very alert group of sophomores. During the year they had an enjoyable party. Many classmates distinguished themselves in sports, music, and forensics.

Now, after some struggle, they became powerful juniors with many new members added to their ranks. This year they elected Kathleen Gilson as president; Owen Reince, vice-president; Irmgard Toepel, secretary; Loretta Monfils, treasurer.

Several school parties were given during the year, at which there was a fine junior attendance. The Junior Prom furnished the greatest social event this year with Lawrence Zirbel and Dulcine Foshion presiding as king and queen.

Juniors march on to another year when they shall become seniors, hoping to improve continually and become 1939's outstanding graduates.

SOPHOMORES

Gay and carefree are the sophomores as they look back to the time when they were the freshmen of Algoma High. In that year, sixty-six newcomers entered high school trying to show their upper classmen they could "get places".

As sophomores, they were respected by all. They did their utmost to treat the freshmen courteously because they knew the predicament they had found themselves in just a year before.

In dramatic work and assembly programs the sophomores have been among the leaders. They have gained much recognition in band, athletics, forensics and in all school organizations. Donald Gordon has proved to be one of Algoma's outstanding cheerleaders.

An election of class officers resulted in Owen Failey being elected president; Nora Freix, vice president; Donald Pfuehler, secretary and Vionne Poehls, treasurer.

Now with more wisdom and learning, they renew their efforts to win a higher place in school. Happy landing to the class of '40!

FRESHMEN

Sing a song of freshmen
 A school room full of books,
 A little fun just now and then
 Calls forth reproving looks.

Sing a song of praises
 In classes, for wonderful themes,
 For beautiful thoughts and phrases
 In the best of freshmen schemes.

Sing a song of sorrow
 As time fleets through the doors,
 Give a thought for their tomorrow
 When they'll be sophomores.

FRESHMEN

On a bright September morning seventy-five eager but frightened freshmen wandered aimlessly through the halls of Algoma High School. Soon they became accustomed to their new life and everything was fine. They elected as class officers: president, Edison Stevens; vice president, Betty Jerabek; secretary Joseph Halada; treasurer, Carol Albro.

The freshmen participated actively in the homecoming, celebrating Algoma's football season. After the bonfire there was a rally and a parade. The event was a huge success. It is hoped that the event will be an annual one.

Stanley Fulwiler took a place as second affirmative speaker on the debate squad, and was awarded a letter. Several students went out for band and other activities.

The greater part of the freshman class was represented at a Christmas program reenacting the scenes back in the "good old grade school days." The characters were dressed like little children. The recitations and songs were short and comical. The effect was very pleasing and colorful.

The freshmen have worked hard during their first-year and will keep doing so during the years that follow.

Algoma 6 Kewaunee 20

Using an inexperienced team the Kewaunee Indians defeated the Algoma Wolves in the first game of the season. The Wolves were stagestruck the entire first half. However, in the second, the team showed some form and put across a touch-down with Orv Ross carrying the mail.

Algoma 14 DePere 7

Wearing their new suits for the first time the Wolves took the DePere Red-birds into camp. The Wolves went into the game with a determination to win and when they emerged victorious they were in possession of a great amount of confidence that was to carry them far in the remaining games.

Algoma 26 Oconto Falls 0

Algoma journeyed to Oconto Falls to return with another victory. The game was played on a very muddy field and the new suits had to be sent to the cleaners. The Wolves ran the total of 13 points in the first 3 minutes of play.

Algoma 0 Oconto 6

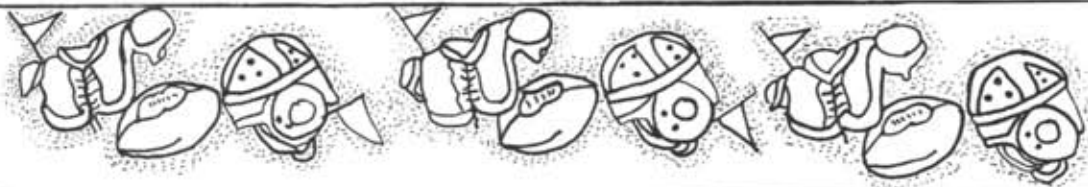

In one of the most exciting games of the whole season the Wolves lost to a confident Oconto team. Over confidence was partly to blame for our loss. In the closing minutes of play the Wolves had the ball down to the one yard line but lacked the drive to put it over.

Algoma 0 Sturgeon Bay 39

The Wolves received their severest beating of the whole season in attempting to defeat the conference champions. None of the plays of Algoma would click and many of the players failed to carry out their assignments. The Bays were big and rugged and the Wolves just couldn't function.

Algoma 13 Two Rivers 0

This game was the most successful of the season for the players and students. The Homecoming spirit of the students helped the team in its victorious efforts. The Wolves simply wouldn't be denied on this day when twelve members of the team were playing their last game for the Algoma High School. Everyone did his part and gave his all for his alma mater. Thus endeth a very successful season for the Algoma Wolves with, "Orvie" Ross, "Biff" Weber, "Hooks" Hunsader, Carl Braem, "Ikey" Behn, "Julie" Hafeman, "Hank" Eggert, Frank Linhart, "Teddy" Novak, "Skipper" Knipfer, "Charlie" Schmit, and "Fat" Hauer finishing their high school football career in a blaze of glory.

FOOTBALL

On the first day of September Coach John Schlicht issued the first call for candidates for the 1937 football team. The first day of practice thirty-four men answered the call. Eleven of these men were lettermen. They were: Ross, Novak, Linhart, Hauer, Weber, Behn, Zimmerman, Zirbel, Hunsader, Ackerman, and Hafeman.

The Wolves started out on a new field, new suits were ordered, and a new season got under way. There was a great amount of school spirit present during the past season.

The Homecoming celebration undoubtedly was the most outstanding sports event of the year. It gave the team a push that helped greatly in the defeat of Two Rivers. The final score was 13 to 0. It was one of the most successful Homecomings that Algoma High School has had.

The Wolves faced a tough schedule especially with Kewaunee as the first opponent. Other teams that were to be met were Oconto, Sturgeon Bay, Two Rivers, West Green Bay Reserves, DePere, and Oconto Falls.

The "Wolves" succeeded in nosing out the Two Rivers "Air Patrols" on their own court to the tune of 17 to 20. The teams fought on comparatively even terms through the whole game. With the score tied 17 to 17 and a minute and a half left to play the "Wolves" turned on the heat and scored a fieldgoal and a free throw to put the game in the bag. Ross carried the burden of the attack by scoring ten points including the winning three.

The Two Rivers "Air Patrols" took revenge on the fighting "Wolves" on the local floor by defeating them 27 to 31. Although the "Wolves" were defeated they put on one of the best exhibitions of the year. The "Wolves" held the edge over the "Patrols" early in the fourth quarter but were unable to stop their spectacular long shots taken late in the game.

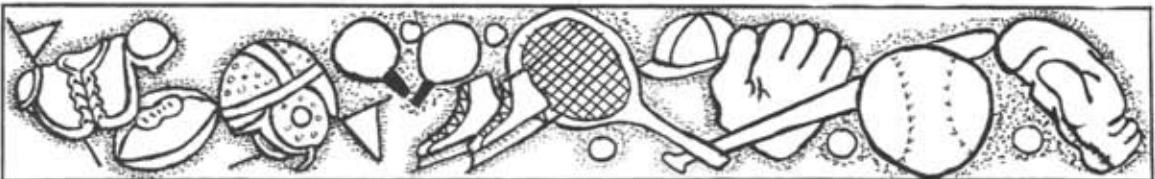

The Sturgeon Bay "Cherry-men" proved to be too much for the "Wolves" to handle at the "Bay" when they handed Algoma its second defeat of the season. The "Wolves" defense failed to stop the fast breaking Bay team and the result was 18 to 23 with Algoma on the short end.

Oconto's "Blue Devils" defeated the Algoma quintette 16 to 17 in a hard fought tilt on the local floor. The locals were unable to overcome the lead staged by the "Blue Devils" in the first three quarters. However, the last quarter was all Algoma with the "Wolves" holding Oconto scoreless and coming within one basket of its goal.

Algoma's "Wolves" playing their third conference game within a week, were defeated by a strong DePere team by a 16 to 17 score. Both teams played fine ball, but the "Redbirds" height proved a great advantage over the "Wolves". Algoma scored eight field goals to DePere's seven, but were unable to score a free throw out of eight attempts. The game was played at Algoma and was a real thriller.

The mighty "Wolves" came through with flying colors when they turned back the fierce attack staged by the Kewaunee "Indians" on their own court by a 15 to 10 margin. The game was a hot battle from beginning to end and will long be remembered, especially by Algoma fans. The "Wolves" held the lead throughout the whole game, but the "Indians" were a constant threat and really kept themselves in the battle. A large crowd attended the game, a high percentage of which were Algoma boosters. Both teams played fine ball, but the local quintet out classed the "Indians" on free throws, making seven out of eleven to the "Indians" two out of five. This being the first win over the "Indians" for some time, Algoma took advantage of the opportunity to celebrate the event.

Playing their last conference game of the season at DePere, the "luckless Wolves" again lost to the "Redbirds", this time by a 20 to 24 margin. The "Redbirds" got off to an early start, leading 8 to 1 at the end of the first quarter. However the "Wolves" came within one point of tying "the big fellows" in a brilliant last quarter drive.

BASKETBALL

Coach John Schlicht issued a call November 19th to his pack of howling "Wolves" who were all eager to do their part in the Northeastern Wisconsin Basketball Conference. Although the Wolves put up a gallant fight against all conference competition they were turned back several times by a lone point which might have just as well resulted in a win if they had their share of the breaks.

All teams which took part in the Northeastern circle were on comparatively even terms with the exception of Oconto Falls. The Wolves were a constant threat to all their opponents and really gave them something to worry about. In several cases however the "Wolves" came out on top.

The "Wolves" lost but three lettermen through graduation last year. Those returning for the "38" season were: Ross, Perry, Behn, Weber, Peot, Hafeman, and Zirbel. Of these players Zirbel is the only one to return for the "39" season.

BASEBALL

Coach Scott Canney issued the first call for baseball in early May, 1937. About twenty fellow responded, from which fourteen were selected to be on the team. Games were booked with Sturgeon Bay, Kewaunee, and the tournament at Sturgeon Bay.

The first game played at Sturgeon Bay, was played in a downpour of rain and had to be called at the end of the fourth inning. On the next trip to the Bay the Wolves came out on top by the score of 7 to 2. LaCrosse was the pitcher with Mraz behind the bat.

A couple of the boys were declared ineligible and this weakened the team considerably.

With a rebuilt team on the field, the Wolves lost a hard-fought battle to the Cherrymen in the return game 11 to 4. After the third inning the boys were never in trouble. Andre pitched brilliant ball for the winners while Wiese and Sibilsky pitched for the losers.

The tournament at Sturgeon Bay proved to be a heartbreaker for the Algoma team. After leading in both games, they weakened in the last inning and lost to Fish Creek and Kewaunee by comparatively close scores.

INTRA-MURALS

The intra-mural sports season opened with six basketball teams trying to cop the top honors. The following teams and captains were entered:

Team	Captain	Team	Captain
Buckeyes	Frank Linhart	Bluejays	Ted Novak
Falcons	Jim Kohlbeck	Midgets	Roland Sibilsky
T.N.T's	Mat Hauer	Panthers	Chas Schmitt

The T.N.T's, after winning four consecutive games were toppled in the final game, necessitating a playoff between the three teams that were tied for first place. Because of their small size, the T.N.T's were conceded little chance to win the crown, but they surprised all observers by coming out on top.

BOWLING

Algoma High School boys participated in bowling for the second year in succession. Four four-man teams were organized and a schedule drawn up. The Bears proved to be the toughest team in the league and won the race in a walkaway. The members of the champion Bears were: John Sacotte, Matthew Hauer, Nyel Anderegg, and Owen Failey. It was a fight for second place between the other three teams, with the Packers finally winning out. The Cardinals paced by "Page" Knipfer, who uncorked two high scores, got in third, with the Grants holding the bottom.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

When the call for girls who wanted to play basketball was given, approximately twenty girls turned out for this sport. After several practices were held under the direction of Miss Marie Kindsvogel and Miss Florence Wackerow, teams were chosen by the following captains: Dorothy Wolter, Martha Stuth, and Marcella Haack. Practice was held in the gymnasium every week on Friday after school, with special referees chosen from the boys' team.

Besides learning the rules of basketball and learning to cooperate, a great deal of exercise, enjoyment, and sportmanship was derived from the games.

FUTURE FARMERS

The Future Farmers of America is a nation-wide organization, composed of boys enrolled in vocational agriculture. Our local chapter was organized four years ago and now consists of thirty-one members.

Soon after school opened, in September of this year, the old members of last year elected the following officers to assume the chapter's duties: Richard Delorit was reelected president; Roland Sibilsky, vice president; Lee Pett secretary; Donald Johnson, treasurer; and Sylvester Zettel, reporter.

During the past year the local chapter sponsored the following program of work: encouraged all newcoming agriculture students to join our chapter, entertained the fathers at a social get-together, treated seed grain for the farmers throughout the community, sent teams to the State Judging Contest, at Madison, entered F. F. A. speaking contest, entered district F. F. A. basket ball and kitten ball tournament, and sent a delegate to the state F. F. A. convention at Madison.

Some of the outstanding accomplishments of the local chapter last year were: Selecting an outstanding farmer of the community and entering applications for the Wisconsin farmer degrees. George Blahnik was selected as an outstanding farmer and was presented with an Honorary State Farmer Degree at the Wisconsin State Fair. Our president, Richard Delorit, made the presentation. Jerome Halada was selected as a Wisconsin Farmer and was given his degree at the state convention at Madison.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The name of our club is "The Queen of Clubs." Its objectives are: to develop the personality of individual girls, to form a connecting link between the school and the home, to develop an appreciation of the field of home economics, to assist in the development of the home economics department, to cooperate with all organizations and in all activities of the school. The club's motto is, "As our girlhood is today so will our womanhood be tomorrow." The theme is, "Not for ourselves alone." In order to develop this theme, several activities were undertaken.

A welcome party was held for the new students to help them get acquainted. The initiation service was held at a Halloween party. Thanksgiving baskets were distributed to less fortunate families. We made Christmas favors for hospital trays and went caroling. A Valentine party was given with teachers as guests. Some of the other parties given were the Grandmother's Party, Benefit Party, Mother and Daughter Banquet, and a farewell party for the seniors. Two other features that were outstanding were the Style Show and the Sunrise Breakfast. The club has been active throughout the season and is proud of the success of its activities.

JOURNALISM CLUB

A Journalism Club of three members was organized twelve years ago. The club has grown until this year it has sixteen members.

It is customary for the principles of journalism to be taught, followed by a test for admission as "club members." In connection with this study, talks on vocational opportunities in journalism were given this year.

The school news is written by members of the Journalism Club, corrected, and published in the Algoma Record-Herald. It is hoped that those who wish to make journalism their vocation will profit by this practical experience.

This year a candy sale was given and pop was sold at basketball games to raise money to pay for the above picture.

The editor this year is Joyce Mateju and assistant-editor is Doris Berg. Miss Dorothy Walters was adviser for the club the first semester; Miss Marion Lemke the second semester.

BAND

The Algoma High School Band performed splendidly at the tournament last spring and returned home with honors. The tournament was held at DePere on Saturday, May 22, where over 3,000 students of 24 different high schools participated. Algoma entered the class "B" division and competed against Sturgeon Bay, Kewaunee, Luxemburg, E. DePere, Plymouth, and New London.

They were awarded first division rating in concert and sight reading and placed in the second groupings in parade. The band mothers strived to raise money to purchase the band members' new uniforms. They were received and worn for the first time at the festival and the band made a splendid appearance. Out of the 23 contestants who took part in solo and ensemble work at the district tournament, 18 received first division ratings.

They felt very proud after receiving the criticism cards from the concert judge. His comment sheet referred to our band as an outstanding school band. His written comment on the band's rendition "Raymond," the contest number, was "I would consider this an excellent performance. There is nothing to criticize!" In the sight reading event, the judge pointed out that the tone and technique were superior in the Algoma Band and closed with the comment, "Very fine band." Grace Kenny was chosen as the most outstanding brass soloist and received high praise on her work.

DEBATE

This season's debate question was resolved: that the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislation. Those taking part were:

Negative
1st speaker Gertrude Levin
2nd speaker Ruth Matson
3rd speaker James Kohlbeck

Affirmative
1st speaker Clara Mura
2nd speaker Stanley Fulwiler
3rd speaker Arvilla Serrahn

The debate team met twice a week after supper and three times a week after school. Practice debates were held during this time. The debate tournament was held at Neenah and the Algoma teams participated.

James Kohlbeck was awarded a silver medal for three years of service while Gertrude Levin, Clara Mura, Ruth Matson, and Arvilla Serrahn were awarded bronze medals for two years of service. Stanley Fulwiler was awarded a letter for one year of service. The whole season this year was characterized by a friendly spirit of competition and a feeling of good will among the various schools.

The debate season opened with a social meeting held at Lidral's cottage. The guests enjoyed a picnic supper and were entertained with games and dancing. On February 4th the debate team entertained former squad members and friends at a party in the kindergarten. Fourteen guests were present.

FORENSICS

The forensic program has been successful this year in affording training to a large group of people in many forms of public speaking. The competition in extemporaneous reading and declamatory was especially keen. Many freshmen entered in some form of forensic activity and several did outstanding work.

A final elimination contest was held with Mrs. Fiske of Green Bay acting as the judge. The results were as follows:

Humorous Declamatory

Grace Kenny-----"The Widow's Mites"
Grace Sibilsky-----"Little Orvie"
Loretta Marquardt----"Tuxedo Blues"
Loretta Monfils--"The Cat Came Back"

Serious Declamatory
