SCROLL OF THE WOLVES

ALGOMA, WISCONSIN

DEDICATION

To Miss Alice Higgins, as a token of appreciation for her faithful guidance as teacher, advisor, and friend, and for her untiring and successful work in promoting the best interest of the Algoma High School, we, the class of 1939, do most gratefully dedicate this edition of the "Scroll of the Wolves".

FOREWORD

It is the aim of the 1939 "Scroll of the Wolves" to give a representative picture of "Youth in a Democracy". Through photos and words is brought a record of American youth building a foundation of education for future citizenship. Gaining practical knowledge, learning to think, and finding an appreciation for the finer arts, the students of Algoma High have again in the past year received the heritage of democracy, a free, liberal education. And more than a mirror of the past year, may this book serve as a prediction for years to come of an ideal life of "Youth in a Democracy".

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The citizens and students of Algoma are ever grateful to these three men, the directors of the Algoma Public Schools, for through their efforts has Algoma obtained one of the finest schools in the state. Their initiative has brought to the students of Algoma educational opportunities and facilities seldom equaled; their understanding of student problems has proved invaluable to the young citizens of tomorrow who depend on these men for leadership.

SCHOOL SONG

It's your school and it's my school,
We'll fight to bring it fame
And to show we have the spirit,
We'll be at every game.

We fight fair and we play square
And proudly we confess
The man who cowers at defeat
Is not in A. H. S.

---J. H.

ALMA MATER

By old Michigan's proud waters,
Rolling waves of blue,
Stands Wisconsin's fairest high school,
Alma Mater true.
Sing her praises, let the chorus
Ring o'er land and sea,
Hail, Algoma, Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee!

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Although the outlook for the high school graduate of the past years has not been as encouraging as it might be, it has become evident in recent months that we have much for which we must be very thankful. This is the 150th year of our government under the constitution of 1789. That great document is still as it was when it was framed and still means what it meant at that time. It always has been the cornerstone of what is most dear to every American citizen, his freedom.

Whatever our youth may have lost in available opportunity to find desirable and profitable work, it is still free. It has not sold its inherited freedom for the promise of material welfare; nor will it ever do so. Of this we can be confident.

The Puritans, who stood on the rocky shores of Massachusetts watching their ship disappear, had made their decision under trying circumstances. They preferred the cold, barren, but free environment of New England to their native homes where there were plenty of food and warm dwellings, but where they were deprived of the freedom that was as dear to them as life itself.

We Americans are surrounded today by much better circumstances than were the Puritans of old. Even though we may be discouraged in the search for opportunities, we surely will not barter away our personal freedom for the promise of material reward. Rather through an orderly democratic process we will cooperate patiently in restoring America to normal prosperity.

America is still the grandest country on the face of the earth. It is a wonderful nation because it respects the sacredness of human personality and encourages opportunity.

With the sincere desire that your devotion to democracy may abide with you always, I wish you, the class of 1939, success and much happiness.

CLASS ACHIEVEMENTS

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The dramatic presentation of the senior class of 1939 was the comedy-farce "One Mad Night." The play, designed to keep the audience laughing and rolling in the isles throughout the entire three acts, deals with the handsome playwright, Don Cutter (Owen Reince), who seeks peace and quiet in an old mansion in the country. But when he and his man, Wing (George Ackerman), arrive, they find everything but peace. To their astonishment they are greeted by Pricilla and John Alden (Loretta Marquardt and Lawrence Zirbel), the latter just returning from hunting Indians.

Lady Macbeth (Marcella Haack) roams the house in her sleep and Mr. Hyde, of Jeckle and Hyde fame (Raymond Ponath), insists on boiling Wing in oil. Complications are prevented by an explanation by Dr. Bunn (David Blahnik) and the housekeeper, Mrs. Kluck (Dorothy Mueller) until Lucille Marcy, young and beautiful, (Geraldine Mahlik) captivates Don with her story of persecution by Doctor Bunn. Don falls slightly hard for Lucille when his former fiancée, Gertrude Finch (Louise Baumann) with her mother (Irmgard Toepel) and their colored maid Depression (Elaine Mraz), arrive.

More happens when Burke (Henry Runke) and a con wanted for murder (Junior Reince) contribute their share to the general uproar. Shots and screams were almost as numerous as the laughs produced when these and many other humorous situations presented themselves in "One Mad Night." The play was directed by Miss Marion Boedecker.

DRAMATICS CLASS PLAY

March 1, the dramatics class presented the three act comedy "Growing Pains", in the Algoma High School auditorium. Lively comedy and clever lines throughout made the play quite a success.

"Growing Pains" is a play about the ticklish situations which have to be dealt with during the adolescent age. It also features the widely known "teen" problems. "Growing up," as it seemed to Terry and George, (Dorothy Krause and Reuben Feld) was too slow. "Why must I be cheated out of wearing high heels," and "why must I be cheated out of owning a fliver?" they wondered. In the end both Terry and George, to their utter satisfaction received that which they wanted. When that happened, they were thoroughly convinced that they were indeed "grown up".

The leading characters were: Raymond Ponath, Dorothy Krause, Reuben Feld, and Elvira Diefenbach. Playing supporting roles were: Ruth Banks, Mercedes Hunsader, Sidney Hettiger, Owen Reince, Delores Serrahn, Tony Schlise, George Schmitz, Roger Faken, Lloyd Hoppe, Louise Bauman, Nadlie Ehlert, Clara Mura, Agnes Piette, Celia Vandervest, Sereno Alberts, Elda Nell, Beatrice Smith, and Grant Graan.

The production staff consisted of stage manager, Lloyd Hoppe; assistant managers, Grant Graan and Sereno Alberts; business manager, Elda Nell; assistant manager, Florence Kirchman; house manager, Nora Friex; property managers, Beatrice Smith and Audrey Stache; make-up, Marie Mraz and Jane Feast; prompter, Ione Dier. Mr. Leist supplied the music between acts. The play was under the direction of Miss Irna Rideout.

CLASS OF 1940

The Annual Junior Prom this year took on the appearance of a gay Mexican Fiesta. The theme was worked out in the colors of green, yellow, and chinese red. Great care was exercised in the construction of balconies which were draped with bright Spanish shawls. Brightly colored pottery and cactus plants were used to create the atmosphere of a fiesta. Punch was served in an adobe hut at one end of the gymnasium. As the guests arrived, they were presented with programs appropriately designed with a colorful guitar player, carrying out the Mexican motif.

The syncopated rhythm of Earl Kemp and his ten-piece orchestra accompanied the swaying dancers. The grand march was led by the king, Joe Van Dam, and his queen, Vione Poehls. The prom advisers were Miss Kindsvogel and Mr. Leist. The following committees were in charge of this grand social event: Decorations--Ruth Banks and Allen Kirchman, co-chairmen, members of committee, Owen Failey, Rueben Feld, Nora Freix, Donald Gordon, Melvin Perry, Vione Poehls, Agnes Piette, Rita Schmidt, George Schmitz, Caroline Serrahn, Beatrice Smith and Roger Faken; Programs--Gertrude Cumber, chairman, Elvira Diefenbach, Ruth Krohn, and Jeanette Melchior; Publicity--Florence Kirchman, Anthony Schlise, Arlene Sibilsky, with Robert Zettle, chairman.

CLASS OF 1940

Now that we are upper classmen, we feel "pretty big"! We're getting all set to step into the "boots" of the seniors.

The results of the first-semester class election gave us Melvin Perry as president; Clinton Halverson as vice-president; Emil Vandermeuse as secretary; and Robert Zettle as treasurer.

Many juniors have been showing their ability as actors through their work in dramatics. Right at the beginning of the season we led off with a pantomime that set the assembly roaring. We followed this success with several one act comedies.

The juniors are very active this year and are taking part in almost every type of sport and activity that our high school offers. Several of the best basketball players on our team are juniors and we're very proud of it. "Husky" junior boys push, drive, and tackle on the football team in the fall. That's enough for the boys, but oh, we have juniors on the girls' basketball team too. Some very good players are from the junior class. You should see them make the baskets.

Our pep club is made up partly of juniors, with a junior as one of the cheerleaders. There are several other clubs such as the "Knights of the Test Tube" in which juniors play an active part. Some of the junior class also entered debate and forensic work.

CLASS OF 1941

Our school days are our best ones
That is what they say
And so we'll try with all our might
To make them stay that way.

We find happiness in working
And we've noticed too
That pleasure is always lurking
In every task we do.

Here among the sophomores,
You will find stars galore.
In every field, in every deed
They work so well and with such speed.

Some "shine" in music--
And others in speech.
There is no difference,
For the top they'll all reach.

The sophomores star in football,
In scholastic efforts too;
And although they may have many falls
May dreams of success come true.

CLASS OF 1941

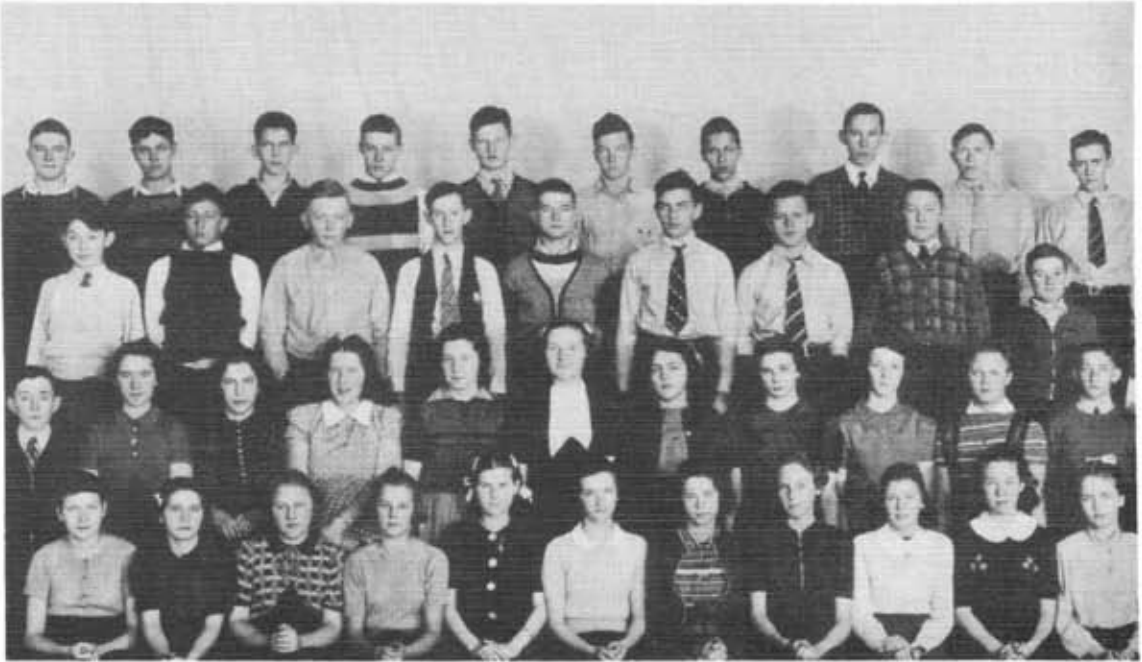

Some sorry, some happy, are the sophomores of the class of '41 as the memories of their first days in the Algoma High School pass in review. The outstanding memory is of the task it was for these seventy-five inexperienced freshmen to adjust themselves.

As sophomores this determined group won the approval of all. This year's freshmen found them courteous and generally helpful, because they themselves knew the difficulties of the frosh.

In activities the sophomores proved themselves capable and ambitious. The class is well represented in band, forensics, athletics, and all other student organizations. Betty Hruska and Marion Ponath were outstanding cheer leaders.

For class officials the sophomores elected Philip Dart, president; Stanley Fulwiler, vice president; Louis Defnet, secretary; Vivian Heidman, treasurer.

With the valuable experience earned thus far in high school, the sophomores are off to break all records as higher classmen. Go to it Class of '41!

School days are happy days
 For "Freshies" who make them so.
 But those who scowl and grumble
 May not find them so.

You study of many things,
 Great men and authors, too,
 Till you wish a million times
 There were no school for you.

Then come the last few days--
 How swiftly they fly by--
 For the ones who are leaving
 A. H. S. now with a sigh.

Take heed, all ye "Freshies",
 Do this! I beg of you,
 Make your school days joyful
 And enjoy the work you do.

CLASS OF 1942

Way back on the seventh day of September, 1938, an enormous group of ninety-two freshmen with a grand and glorious feeling entered high school to find out how much they didn't know.

The class contained the usual mixture of boys and girls found in any class: the timid and uncertain; the studious and energetic; the mischievous and carefree. Some are fast achieving their highest ambitions, while others step lively to the tune of numerous scoldings.

We selected as our class officers: president, Arthur Gwynne; vice president, Paul Cihlar; secretary, Marion Naze; and treasurer, Earl Kostichka.

The freshmen have been active members of the many clubs and organizations including Future Farmers of America, Queen of Clubs, Pep Club, Students' Forum, Band, and Chorus.

In the beginning of the year the freshmen gave a program for assembly in which they were dressed as little children in an amateur contest. By no means are the freshmen talents few or limited.

Now that we have worked hard to reach the first milestone of our journey we hope to keep up the good work until we become the honorary graduating class of '42.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

This year Mr. Leist, our new band and chorus director, has succeeded in increasing our chorus membership to seventy-two persons. Also, through his efforts, the chorus received new robes for the Christmas concert. The gowns are black with white stoles.

On December 20, 1938, the chorus presented its first concert of the semester. The following selections were presented: "Beautiful Savior" by Christianson, with Irmgard Toepel as soloist; "Come, Soothing Death" by Bach; "Brahm's Lullaby", arranged by Director Leist, with Reuben Feld, Gordon Luedtke, and Loretta Monfils as soloists; and a Negro spiritual, "I Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray", with Marcella Haack as soloist. Miss Haack received so great an ovation that the selection was repeated.

After a short intermission the chorus reappeared to sing the ancient Christmas carols, "Gesu Bombino" and "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear". Then, with lighted candles and soft blue lights, the chorus rendered as a concluding selection the beautiful and most familiar of carols, "Silent Night".

The reception given the chorus at its first concert has proved the popularity of musical activities of this kind in Algoma and has paved the way for many future concerts.

BAND

Under the leadership of Mr. Fred Schroeder, the Algoma High School Band, consisting of 58 members, received high honors at the district music festival held on May 14, 1938, at Manitowoc. The band participated in the Class B division, competing against Sturgeon Bay, De Pere, Kewaunee, Luxemburg, New London, and Plymouth. The solo and ensemble tournament was held at Sturgeon Bay, where Algoma carried away fifteen first places and five seconds. Those who placed first journeyed to Madison, where they took twelve first divisions. During the summer, the band entertained at the Luxemburg County Fair, at the Fourth of July celebration, and at the Snow Festival at Two Rivers.

On May 19, Mr. Schroeder resigned his position as director to teach at the new Sheboygan High School. On September 6, 1938, with the beginning of the new school year, Mr. Frederick Leist took up his position as director of the high school band. He is a Milwaukee State Teachers College graduate and came highly recommended by the officials of the college.

The officers of this year are as follows: president, E. Mraz; vice president, L. Zirbel; secretary, V. Poehls; treasurer, L. Monfils. On December 20, the annual Christmas concert was presented, the first public appearance of the band under the new director. Mr. F. Leist and the band are to be congratulated for this outstanding musical treat and for the many splendid concerts presented throughout the year for the enjoyment of the public and student body.

QUEEN OF CLUBS

The meeting will please come to order. The Home Economics Club which is made up of forty-nine girls interested in the domestic arts, is about to conduct one of its regular semi-monthly meetings.

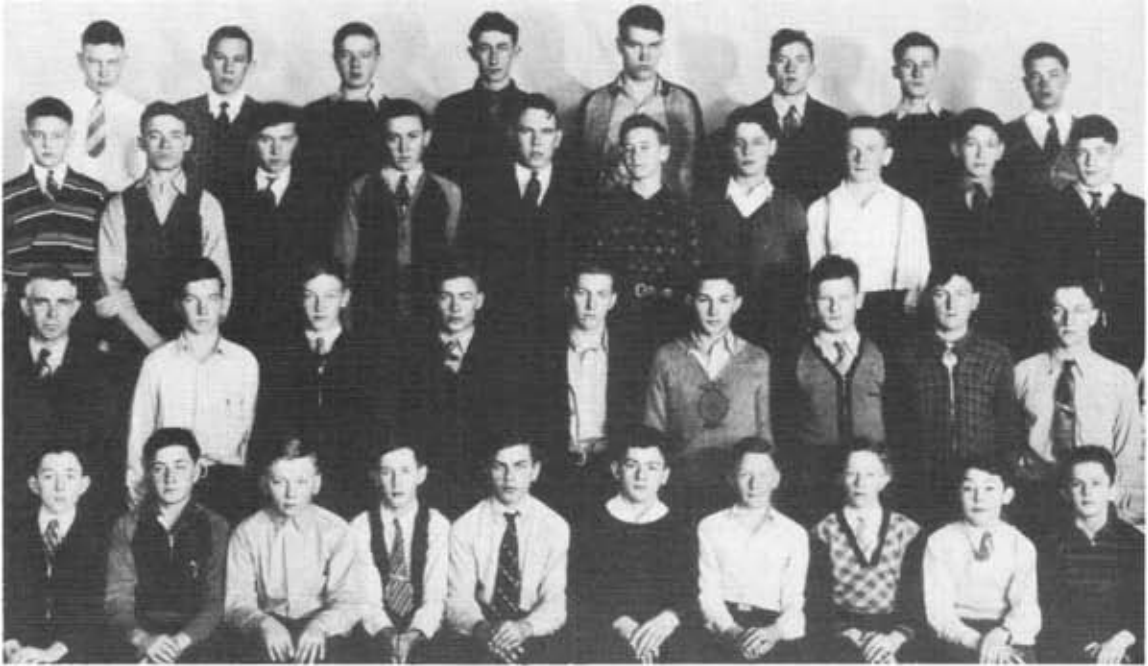

Among the things which probably will be taken up for consideration are the sleigh-ride party, the money making scheme, and Come As Your Asked Valentine's Party.

A special meeting will be held at a later date to make out a schedule for the spring highlights, the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet and the Senior Farewell Party.

In view of our motto this year, "Work while you work, play while you play," we forty-nine members have been sponsoring a program of further and better efforts in being helpful, healthy, happy girls.

For not only have we enjoyed social activities such as the Welcome Tea, Halloween Party, and the Christmas Carol Party, but we have also been active in helping other school organizations. We club girls recovered the stage furniture for the Dramatics Club and furnished the cheer leaders with satin blouses. Baskets were also made for the needy at Thanksgiving.

This organization is proving to be one of the most popular and active clubs in the school.

FUTURE FARMERS

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization. During the last decade the club has grown very rapidly. Our local chapter was organized five years ago and now has thirty-nine members enrolled.

Last fall the Future Farmers met and elected capable officers to carry out the club's duties for the year. Gerald Gilson was elected president; Emil Vandermeuse, vice president; William Schley, secretary; Allen Kirchman, treasurer; and Edson Stevens, reporter.

The F. F. A. chapter of Algoma carried out the following activities during the past year: encouraged all new vocational agriculture students to join the organization, initiated the "greenhands", sent judging teams to Madison, staged Fathers' and Sons' banquet, held party with the Home Ec. girls, participated in the speaking contest, treated seed grain for the farmers in the surrounding district, established a basketball and kittenball team, sponsored the sending of a delegate to the F. F. A. convention at Madison, enjoyed a camping trip, and cared for a booth at the Wisconsin State Fair.

The Algoma chapter is very proud of the fact that Richard Delorit was this year elected state president of the Wisconsin Future Farmers.

STUDENT FORUM!

"Let's Talk It Over" is the slogan of our newly organized club, "Students' Forum" with Miss Higgins as faculty adviser. The purpose of this informal discussion group is to provide an opportunity for students to interpret recent national and world affairs. The theme of the meetings this year has been "Dictatorship vs. Democracy."

Each program is in charge of a student committee which arranges for the panel of speakers who lead by presenting their views of the subject selected by the club. Student members enjoy giving their opinions and asking questions to clarify their ideas. The club enrollment has increased from twenty members to thirty-two, with all classes and post-graduates represented.

Topics of discussion generally follow the newspaper headlines. Among the numerous subjects introduced were: Germany, Italy, Spanish Civil War, United States National Defense, Foreign Policy, and the Pan American Congress at Lima. Social affairs are intermingled with the discussion programs. Club members have enjoyed a Christmas and Valentine party.

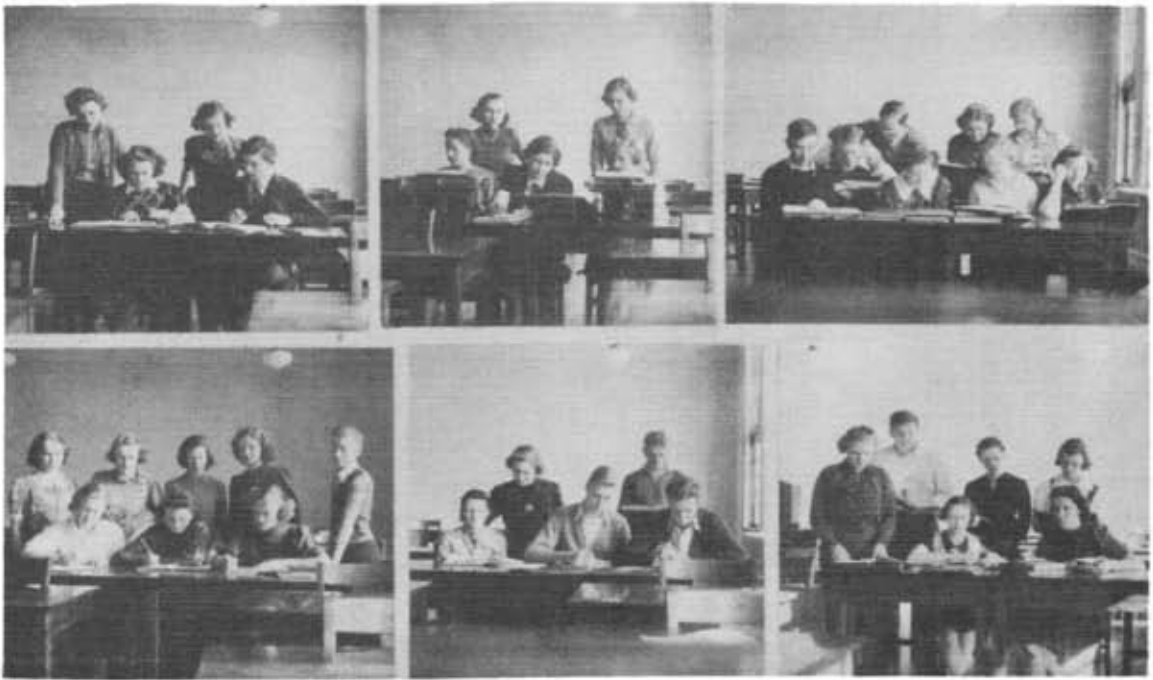

Seated--Emaline Meyer, Loretta Monfils, Helen Dubratz, Elaine Lohrey, Elda Nell, Bonnie Berg, Margaret Zimmerman, Sylvia Levin.
Standing--Ruth Crabb, Delores Raether, Bernice Flegal, Janice Mateju, Loretta Ciha, Pearl Blahnik, Vera Schneider, Virginia Ebert, Dorothy Gaulke, Miss Walters.

JOURNALISM CLUB

Let's stop and attend a meeting of the Journalism Club--shall we? Miss Dorothy Walters, our sponsor, calls the meeting to order every Monday at 3:45. First comes the routine work of checking the beats of each reporter and perhaps learning some new rule of journalism. Now the meeting is turned over to Editor Helen Dubratz or Assistant Editor Elaine Lohrey; reports from committees and from Elda Nell, our publicity agent, are heard. The varied activities of the clubs are discussed, and the meeting is adjourned at about 4:15.

Reviewing the events of the last year we find that our club members were busy selling refreshments at basketball games. On December 20, Miss Walters gave a Christmas party for the club. The club has grown in size this year, and we hope to keep building. We think it's a grand club--don't you?

FORENSICS

This year's debate enthusiasts, all beginners, included Jeanette Melchior, Mercedes Hunsader, Betty Hruska, Bob Dommer, Kathleen Gilson, Marion Ponath, and Ray Ponath. Journeying to Shawano to battle over the question, Resolved: That the United States Should Establish an Alliance with Great Britain, the Affirmative, J. Melchior and R. Ponath, won the decision over Shawano and New London and lost to Clintonville. The Negative, K. Gilson, M. Ponath, and B. Dommer, won over Neenah and lost to Oconto and Kewaunee. Miss Marion Boedecker was coach.

The aim in forensic work has been to give training to as many people who are interested in this type of work as possible. An elimination contest was held on March 23. Five members were selected in serious and humorous declamatory and ten in extemporaneous reading, with Miss Rideout as coach.

The local contest was held on March 30, with Miss Kellogg and Miss Edwards as judges. The winners in order of their rank were: Raymond Ponath, Elaine Wickman, Elaine Mraz, and Betty Jerabek, in serious declamatory. In humorous declamatory Loretta Marquardt, Reuben Feld, Marion Ponath, and Betty Hruska were selected. The winners in extemporaneous reading were: Irmgard Toepel, Carol Albro, Ruth Banks, and Louise Baumann. Dorothy Mueller, representing our school in oratory, was coached by Miss Walters.

The League Contest was held April 12 at Oconto. The first and third winners in each division entered this conference. The Northeastern Conference Contest was held on April 26. The second and fourth winners entered this contest.

Seated--Nora Freix, Grace Kenney, Raymond Ponath, Loretta Monfils.
 Standing--Emaline Meyer, Nyel Anderegg, George Ackerman, Mercedes Hunsader, Vione Poehls, Elaine Lohrey, Jeannette Melchior, Mr. Canney.

KNIGHTS OF THE TEST TUBE

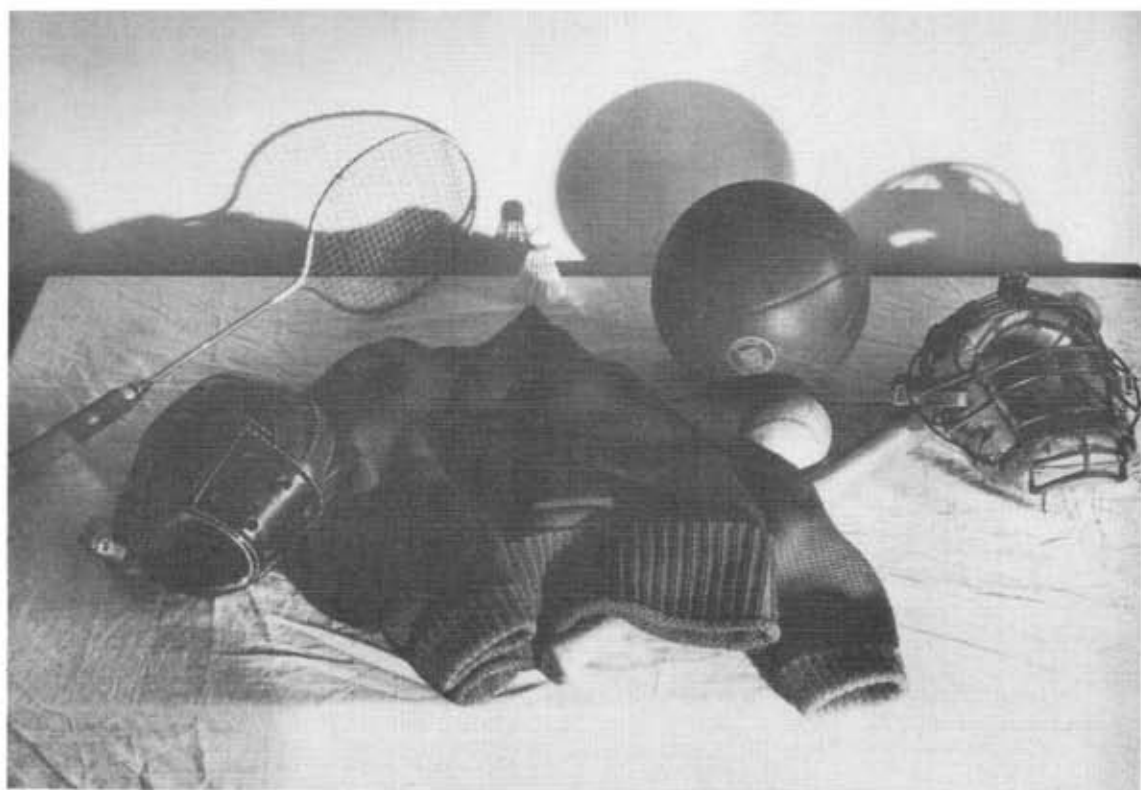

Through the initiative of Mr. Canney, physics and chemistry instructor, a science club was organized with the aim, "To stimulate interest in all fields of science and to increase our knowledge in the natural sciences."

All juniors and seniors having taken, or who are taking physics or chemistry, and have eleven honor points in science are eligible for membership. The officers elected this year are: president, Raymond Ponath; vice president, Grace Kenney; secretary, Loretta Monfils; treasurer, George Ackerman; adviser, Mr. W. S. Canney.

Regular meetings are held every Wednesday evening. After a business discussion, short talks are given by the members or by guest speakers. The remainder of the evening is devoted to experiments in the various fields of science--biology, chemistry, and physics.

Photography is one of the main interests of the group, but far from the only one. Telegraphs click, biological specimens are dissected, microscopes seek the unknown, acrid gases fill the lab, lie detectors discover the truth, telescopes search the heavens, and in general, the members find science one of the most interesting and fascinating studies in and outside of school.

FOOTBALL

After a decisive beating in the hands of the "Wolves" in the last year's Homecoming game, Two Rivers gained due revenge by defeating Algoma 25 to 0. The last half was played in a drizzle, which handicapped both teams considerably.

Algoma, having been selected as the "Indians'" homecoming foe, failed to upset their strong passing attack and as a result suffered a 33 to 13 defeat. Algoma scored on a pass from Dart to Failey and on a lateral from Owen Reince to "Chet Zimmerman, "Chet" going 40 yards for the score. Failey suffered a broken collar bone and was lost to the "Wolves" for the rest of the season.

The De Pere "Redbirds", who later won the Northeastern Wisconsin Football Conference championship, proved their superiority by handing the "Wolves" a 32 to 0 defeat. Phil Dart, who was rapidly proving himself a great asset to the team, received an injured shoulder and as a result was unable to play the remainder of the season.

Playing on a super-saturated gridiron, the "Wolves" lost to a powerful Oconto team 40 to 13. Both teams were severely handicapped due to the very bad condition of the field. Zimmerman turned in a fine game at halfback, scoring the two touchdowns on 60 and 70 yard runs.

The Sturgeon Bay "Cherryman" succeeded in spoiling Algoma's Homecoming by defeating them 13 to 7 in one of the most exciting games of 1938. Sturgeon Bay scored immediately after the kick-off on a much disputed play. Algoma, however came right back to tie the score with Beck carrying the ball through center. The last quarter drive by the "Cherryman" proved fatal to Algoma as the invaders scored from within the five yard line. This game finished the football careers of nine seniors: "Chet" Zimmerman, "Dag" Hucek, "Squee" Ullsperger, "Lorney" Zirbel, "Hank" Runke, Owen Reince, George Ackerman, "Judy" Reince, and "Bob" Beck, who was elected honorary captain for the '38 football season.

BASKETBALL

Algoma got off to a poor start by losing their opening game to a flashy De Pere five 17 to 9. Although the "Wolves" played hard, they were able to make good but three out of 40 attempted fieldgoals.

The Two Rivers "Air Patrols" were a little too much for Coach Schlicht's inexperienced team to handle and therefore they had to suffer the consequences. Both teams played rather ragged ball due to the fact it was one of the first conference games of the season. Score 19-14.

Algoma was again out to upset Coach Shaffer's Kewaunee "Indians" as they did in last year's tilt, but were unsuccessful and had to take a 23-12 beating.

With the score knotted 24 all at the end of the Sturgeon Bay game, Algoma was out done in an overtime period with the final count 28 to 25. The lead changed hands several times throughout the game. Owen Reince played an outstanding defensive as well as offensive game, scoring 9 points followed closely by Junior Reince's 8.

Although the "Wolves" went down in defeat 24 to 14 at the hands of the Oconto "Blue Devils", they held the edge over the invaders up to the beginning of the last quarter. The "Blue Devils" then went on a spectacular scoring spree making 10 points and holding Algoma scoreless.

Handicapped considerably by the absence of lanky Owen Reince, the fighting "Wolves" threw a real scare into the invading De Pere quintette with the final count 20 to 17. It was just one of those games in which the breaks spelled the difference between victory and defeat.

BASKETBALL

After playing a fine game at Two Rivers, the "Wolves" went into a slump which cost them victory over the Kewaunee "Indians." The teams played on comparatively even terms the first half but after that it was all Kewaunee. The count was 15 to 9.

After losing to Sturgeon Bay in a thrilling overtime game at Sturgeon, the "Wolves" attempt for revenge failed, and in turn were shoved farther into the basement by losing the game 22 to 13.

Algoma finally completed their unsuccessful season, at Oconto, by losing 27 to 15. Algoma gave them a good battle the first half but were not able to withstand the greater ruggedness of the Oconto team.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

| Clinton Halverson | Bombers | 2 | 2 | .500 | 17 | 20 |
| Lloyd Hoppe | Bulldogs | 0 | 4 | .000 | 13 | 39 |

Five teams were chosen with Donald Gordon's T. N. T.'s winning the race. The T. N. T.'s had an unmarred record. They seemed to have a fine eye for the basket, especially "Ken" Hoffmann, who led the scoring for the league with a total of 18 points. He was followed closely by A. Wautlett, a Panther forward, who worked hard for his points and also was a fine defensive man. The T.N.T.'s had the best offensive record with 45 points, and also the best defensive with 16 points scored against them.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The purpose of this organization, primarily, is to promote healthy exercise, instill fair play, cooperation, and at the same time engage the girls in an interesting game. Approximately twenty girls enrolled this year showing that this sport has increased in popularity.

For the past several months, under the able direction of our adviser, Miss Kindsvogel, the girls have been present at basketball practices, which are held every Friday night after school. At these practice periods, Miss Kindsvogel divides the girls into two teams, for a lively scrimmage. Substitutions are made during the game, giving everyone a fair chance to play. Preceding these scrimmages the girls also practice free throws and make baskets.

On Tuesday, February 21, the Forestville girls' basketball team took a 14 to 6 decision from the Algoma girls' team. The result was never in doubt although Algoma scored, making a good effort to hold their own. For the first few minutes of the game six points were made by Forestville's star scorer of this game, Ione Zirbel. Several scorings were made for Algoma by Louise Baumann and Rosemary Schlise. Toward the end Martha Stuth made one basket followed by a free throw boosting Forestville's score again. Rosabelle Laurent made a basket in the last quarter for Algoma, lessening somewhat the large margin which Forestville held.
