BOARD OF EDUCATION

Each worth while organization, in order to best accomplish its purposes, must have some unit of management to handle such matters and responsibilities, which are necessary to keep the organization running smoothly.

We are fortunate, indeed, to have three alert, intelligent, and able men as our Board of Education. They have provided Algoma's youth with educational opportunities and facilities that are seldom equaled. By using the advantages at Algoma High School to the utmost of our ability, we, the students, can show our appreciation to the administrators of the school.

ALMA MATER

By old Michigan's proud waters,
Rolling waves of blue,
Stands Wisconsin's fairest high school,
Alma Mater true.
Sing her praises, let the chorus
Ring o'er land and sea,
Hail, Algoma, Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee!

FOREWORD

The 1942 Scroll of the Wolves reopens the curtain on familiar scenes of another outstanding and successful school year. Cherished scenes--otherwise faded by the passing of time--have been preserved on its pages. Depicted are memories of young Americans, who shall go into the world of tomorrow as true citizens of the United States to extend the principles upon which our nation was founded. The Scroll of the Wolves staff endeavors to present to you, by pictures and words, the spirit, loyalty, and enthusiasm of Algoma's youth.

DEDICATION

In behalf of the student body of Algoma High School, the Scroll of the Wolves staff wishes to dedicate the new yearbook to our principal, Mr. Joseph F. Bertram, for his untiring efforts in guiding the students to the "American Way of Life." His counsel and leadership have been of an inestimable value. His practical ideas and wise planning have made our school one of the best in the state.

Youth in Democracy

Youth in democracy playing its part;
Youth now triumphant and stout of heart;
Youth ever ready to do and to dare;
Youth ever noble, fare you fair.

Hope of tomorrow indeed you are.
Every American, facing the war,
Knows that your vigor and virtue will be
Adequate for a complete victory.

Nor do we feel that the task to be done
Is to be born by your hands alone.
All of us join with ardor and might.
Arms bare, we bid you to fight for the right.

Ever and ever throughout history
Youth faced tomorrow in our great country
Bravely and boldly, not fearful, afraid.
Therefore, on you is the leadership laid.

Savior to be of our Freedom of old;
Often about which your teachers have told;
Saviors to be of a heritage great;
Much will you do for democracy's fate.

Great is indeed the part that you play,
Actors on the stage of life today.
Act Two, tomorrow, begins for you.
Tomorrow the lessons, you learned, come true.

Finally, when the curtain will fall,
Closing the drama of life's active call,
Honor and glory great will be paid
To youth of today that stands unafraid.

Loyal and true to the cause you begin
Patriots all you've determined to win
Freedom for all over land over sea
Victory and peace for humanity.

Youth in democracy playing its part;
Youth now triumphant and stout of heart;
Youth ever ready to do and to dare;
Youth ever noble, fare you fair.

Joseph F. Bertram

Colette Gerhart	Eileen Nell	Sylvia Sunstrom
Jeanne Zastrow	Joyce Zillmer	Jeanette Faken

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

In keeping with these times, when army life is a popular theme, the senior class this year presented a farcical military operation in three attacks called "A Letter to the General". It was directed by Miss Marion Boedecker, with the help of Alice Leischow, assistant director.

The romantic leads of the play were portrayed by Edythe Hunsader and Peter Weber. In supporting roles were: Norman Hostak, Sidney Holub, Lloyd Blahnik, James Gerondale, Jeannette Faken, Doris Fox, and Colette Gerhart. Marion Naze and Frances Klarowski were two college girls and Gerald Holtz, Carl Braun, Leonard Dahms, Roland Servaes, Billy Moore, Donald Mueller, Donald Cook, Ralph Uecker and Eldor Eggert portrayed soldiers in the camp. Jeannette Dix played the bugle while a male chorus including Harvey Daul, Norman Defnet, Jirtle Kolstad, Waldo Stuth and Robert Dommer supplied the musical harmony.

A production staff was selected to help put on the play. It included: Jean Foshion and Eileen Nell, prompters; Luella Flegal, Verna Mura and Wilford Gebauer, stage crew; Sylvia Sunstrom and Norman Defnet, publicity; Carol Bouche, Marion Berg and Marie Schlise, tickets; Jeanne Zastrow and June Moegenburg, music directors; Carol Lehnert, Lorraine Baster and Robert Dommer, programs; Harvey Prausa, lighting; and Betty Rose, Eunice Lehkuhl, Marjorie Toppe, Betty Lou Rudie, Sylvia Havel, Bette Ebert, Luella Uecker, Virginia Dommer, Joyce Hucek, and Fern Kirchman, house committee.

MUSIC HOLDS SWAY AT A.H.S.

According to Mr. Leist, the band director, this year's band of sixty-four members has not been equaled in excellence for many years past.

Forty-five of the band members participated in the solo and ensemble tournament held at Shawano on March 29, 1941. A fine showing, of sixteen firsts, including four outstanding, thirteen seconds and three third places, was made. The non-competitive full band district festival was also held at Shawano on May 3, 1941. The band criticisms were exceptionally favorable.

The four outstanding events of the district music festival were entered in the National Tournament at St. Paul, Minnesota, May 15-17, 1941. The solos and ensembles entered included: piccolo solo, second rating, Sylvia Levin; bassoon solo, second rating, Colette Gerhart; tenor saxophone solo, third rating, Grace Sibilsky; quintet, third rating, Marion Naze, Colette Gerhart, Sylvia Levin, Betty Hruska, and Jeanne Zastrow.

The third annual spring concert was held on May 26, and the fourth annual Christmas concert was held on December 21, 1941.

THE CHORUS

Each year, as the choir raises its voices during its annual Christmas and Spring concerts, the audience continues to appreciate more and more the beauty of fine music. This year with a select personnel of sixty-four voices, the chorus is especially impressive. A very effective setting was worked out for the 1941 Christmas concert. The soloists, Colette Gerhart, Bernard Feld, and Mary Ann Zastrow stood on a white balcony, while the stage was illuminated only with blue light.

The chorus has appeared in several school assembly and patriotic programs in Algoma. The group is capable of doing, and has done beautiful and difficult tunes by well known composers. Evidence of this fact is shown by its record at the yearly music festival. Although the festival was non-competitive last year the chorus came back to its Alma Mater with an excellent report.

For the past two years the girls' trio, an out-growth of the chorus, has been out-standing at the regional tournaments. This made the trio eligible for the national tournament at St. Paul, from which it returned with high honors. Indeed, "MUSIC HATH POWER TO SOOTHE THE SAVAGE BEAST."

THE ORCHESTRA

This year the Algoma school dance orchestra opened the season with a bang. They played their best program for the victorious home-coming celebration. The vocalists, who have performed with the orchestra are: the girls' trio, consisting of Mary Ann Zastrow, Colette Gerhart, and Alice Leischow; and the soloists, Verna Mura, Bernard Feld, and Carol Dart.

With several new additions to the various sections, the orchestra membership reached a new high, with twenty-two young people playing the latest dance hits.

The dinner-theater party, which has been an annual event, was held at Green Bay. Mr. and Mrs. Bertram, Mr. and Mrs. Leist, Mr. and Mrs. Schumerth, and Mr. and Mrs. Zirbel chaperoned the group. The group enjoyed a chicken dinner at Mae Dury's and a movie at a local Green Bay theater.

F I L M F U N

Tuesday evening every other week, the chemistry room becomes animated with the conversation and laughter of an active group of young people, known as the "Kamera Kyds." These amateur photographers learn to produce better pictures, to develop and print their own films, to appreciate better photography, as well as to exchange ideas. This organization provides many excellent records of school activities through its collection of snapshots.

When the club was organized at the beginning of the school year, officers including: William Fellows, president; Raymond Fulwiler, vice president; and Edythe Hunsader, secretary-treasurer, were elected by the group. Mr. Doepke is the advisor.

The Kamera Kyds have proved by their many activities to be one of the most spirited organizations in A.H.S. Previous to the homecoming game, several club members presented a clever skit in assembly entitled "Camera-ites" which proved very enjoyable to the student body. A few weeks later members submitted their favorite snapshots to a Camera Contest. The judges awarded a blue ribbon to Wm. Fellows for the best snapshot, and a red ribbon denoting second place to Charles O'Konski. Once a month photographic slides, loaned to the "kyds" by the Eastman Kodak Company, were shown and criticized. Finally, the club celebrated with a skating party held on January 13, after which everyone enjoyed a bowl of piping hot chili.

THEY TALK IT OVER

The lights are dimmed, and the curtain goes up on the first meeting of the Student Forum. The first scene finds the president, Marion Naze, seated behind the desk in room 205, ready to begin a discussion with the sixty-three up-to-the-minute news critics. Robert Kramer, the secretary, sits with paper and pencil ready to take down the minutes of the meeting. Because sixty-three over-active members are too many for anyone to handle at one time, vice president, Jeannette Dix, is given charge of half the group. They leave this scene to meet at some future date. Treasurer Gerald Holtz decides to go with the latter group.

As we listen, we find that these club members don't only scratch the surface, but dig down into the why's and wherefore's. We can see that they are not satisfied with just getting any kind of information, for they are discussing the various sources of reliable information, such as movies, radio, magazines, and newspapers. Then they go on to discuss the latest developments in World War II, in an effort to understand what is "beyond the headlines."

Time marches on! The second scene finds Miss Dix and her group returning. The two sections have decided to hold a get-together at which they are going to talk over the benefits they have thus far received from belonging to the organization. The gavel must be sounded as everyone is anxious to contribute to the conversation. Just listen! Now we find out why this club has so many members. As they summarize the past meetings we find that they have enjoyed several parties, have promoted more interest in current topics, have learned to think fairly, and have been taught to discuss topics with the idea of learning something, not only with the idea of selling their opinions to other members of the group. What fine ideals these students have set up. These are the kind of clearminded people America needs in her fight for victory as TIME MARCHES ON!

THE PUBLICITY DEPARTMENT

Everyone reads the newspaper. Anyone interested in school activities reads the school news in the local weekly paper. How does that news reach the paper? What does the Journalism Club accomplish?

The eight-thirty bell on Tuesday morning not only means the school day has begun, but for Journalism Club reporters it is the deadline for the week's news. Miss Schlagenhaut, the club adviser, checks the articles and sends them to the typing room. During the eighth hour, at the weekly meeting of the club, news is edited by the members. After school, Florence Haucke, our messenger girl, delivers the articles to the printing office.

Last fall thirty-two students came out for Journalism. The membership was decided upon by feature stories the students wrote, and by their attendance and interest at the meetings. Eileen Nell and Marion Berg, who are our only second year members, were appointed editor and assistant editor respectively. Colette Gerhart was elected treasurer.

The club presents school events of A.H.S. to the general public and to the students. Members learn to appreciate what is news and to improve their ability to write the English language in a concise fashion. Pop and candy were sold at basketball and football games, by the club. With the money earned, membership pins were purchased, which increased the enthusiasm of students for the organization.

THE SCRIPT WRITERS

The spotlight turns once again, and it casts its powerful beam on "us", the "Scroll of the Wolves" staff. It takes more than the editors, namely--Colette Gerhart, Jeanette Dix and Frances Klarowske, and Miss Higgins, faculty advisor, to put out a yearbook. Without the whole-hearted cooperation of the staff, the students, and the faculty, an annual could not be successfully produced.

The publication staff started early in the year with only a crude dummy to work by. Layouts changed from time to time, and the copy space was designated to the class staff members that follow: Edythe Hunsader, Bob Dommer, and Jeanne Zastrow, of the Senior Class; Mary Ann Zastrow, and Carl Failey, of the Junior Class; Pat Lohrey and Lloyd Schmeling of the Sophomore Class; and Ralph Detjen, and Lenore Bogdon, of the Freshmen Class. The club reporters began to turn in rough drafts of their numerous "write-ups." Tommy Lang and Joyce Birdsall represented Forensics; Alvin Gigot, F. F. A.; Marion Berg, F. H. A.; Betty Rose, Journalism Club; Alice Leischow, Chorus; Lewis Schwedler, Camera Club; Shirley Stephenson, Orchestra; Helen Krueger, Band; Carol Lehnert, Discussion Club, and Norman Hostak, and Jim Gerondale, Athletics.

Peter Weber, the business manager, and the sales committee: Marion Naze, Doris Fox, Lloyd Blahnik, Bob Dommer, and the editors, started the subscription deposits rolling in from students and from clubs. Snap shots were collected and presented by Harvey Prausa, Bill Fellows, Jerome Mura, and Ray Fulwiler, under the able direction of Mr. Doepke. The members of the art staff were: June Johnson, Edith Birdsall, Norman Defnet, Donald Cook, Bonnie Shillin, and Donald Mueller. The school calendar was kept by Eldor Eggert and Jean Foshion, while classroom boners were recorded by Lloyd Blahnik, Gerald Holtz, and Harvey Daul. Typists, Eileen Nell, Lila Andregg, Marjorie Toppe, Joyce Zillmer, Marie Fiala, Betty Rudie, and Louella Flegal, went to work, and by the middle of April, the Scroll of the Wolves finally went to press, where it is printed, and made ready for distribution to you, the students.

THOSE BRILLIANT SPEAKERS

At the debate tournament at Shawano, the Algoma teams made a good showing. The members of the first team were: Edith Birdsall and Laurabelle Gilson of the affirmative; Joyce Birdsall and Thomas Lang of the negative. The team's result was: no wins for the affirmative, and two out of three wins for the negative.

The second team members were: Colette Gerhart and Edythe Hunsader for the negative and Eileen Nell and Carol Lehnert, affirmative. The negative debaters carried the honors in one contest, while the affirmative won two debates.

The contestants who debated at Kewaunee were Jean Foshion and Peter Weber, affirmative; Marion Dier and Jeanette Faken, negative; also Colette Gerhart and Edythe Hunsader, negative; Eileen Nell and Carol Lehnert, affirmative. One of the outstanding speakers at the tournament was Joyce Birdsall.

The members of the speech class gave a program at the Pulaski High School. The program included a panel discussion concerning extra-curricular activities, a humorous reading, and a radio push-button tuning program.

Students have shown exceptional interest in all forms of speech work during the past year. The elimination contest was held March 10, the judges being Miss Boedecker, Mr. Leist, and Mr. Schumerth. The following people represented A.H.S. at the forensics tournament held at Kewaunee: Declaimers, Dorothy Root and Joyce Birdsall, serious; Edythe Hunsader and Eileen Nell, humorous; Orators Lloyd Schmeling and Jean Graan; Extemp Speaking, Colette Gerhart; Extemp Reading, Robert Dommer and Lorraine Bastar.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

The "Future Homemakers Club," whose aim is to further home economics work, is made up of forty-one members. The aim of this club is to develop an appreciation of homemaking as a vocation. The organization holds its meetings every other Wednesday. In order for students to join this club, they must be taking home economics or have already taken all that is offered. On September 10, the old members met and elected Jeanne Zastrow, president; Mildred Marquardt, vice-president; Marion Berg, secretary; Betty Ebert, treasurer, and Sylvia Havel, the historian.

The Algoma chapter of the F. H. A. carries on many social and business activities during the year. On August 23, 1941, a "Youth Day Pageant" was held at the Wisconsin State Fair. The theme of the pageant was "American Youth at Work and at Play." The Algoma F. H. A. was held responsible for the depicting of an old-fashioned quilting bee. Luella Uecker, Verna Blahnik, Evelyn Blatsky, Anna Mae Schmiling, and Trilbe Brandt took part in this pageant.

At the state and county fairs in August the F. H. A. set up a booth called the "Home Tailor Shoppe." Lenore Mraz, Janice Mateju, Anna Mae Schmiling, and Donna Moegenberg demonstrated in these booths, winning first place. Two of the girls had entered the county judging contest. Verna Blahnik won first place in a canning contest, and Helen Klarowske won second in the clothing contest.

Some of the activities that the club carried on through the summer and the school year were: a freshman tea, distribution of Thanksgiving baskets, a Valentine party, and a Christmas party. At the second semester Miss Garthwaite took over the duties of Miss Olson as home economics instructor.

FUTURE FARMERS

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization, whose aim is to develop vocational agriculture. The chapter now has thirty-five active members. The F.F.A. has elected an able, energetic staff of officers including: Melvin Machut, president; Marvin Vandervest, vice-president; Robert Johnson, treasurer; Wallace Machut, secretary; and Alvin Gigot, reporter.

Since this year was the tenth anniversary of the organization of the local chapter, the event was featured at a reunion held on December 22, 1941, at the A.H.S. gymnasium. The reunion was attended by the charter members, the parents of the present members, and the members themselves. Mr. J.F. Bertram, our principal, and Mr. Bassman, State F.F.A. Advisor, were two of the speakers present. During the past decade of club activity, six of the members have attained state farmer degrees, and Richard Delorit has attained an American farmer's degree.

The local chapter was represented in a state judging contest at Madison by Ralph Uecker, Eugene Feuerstein and Alvin Gigot. The boys judged apples, farm crops, and potatoes. They received ratings of "creditable" in judging apples, "good" in farm crops and "good" in judging potatoes. Alvin Gigot received tenth place in individual judging of potatoes.

Activities sponsored during the year are: the bean soup party, state fair exhibits, F.F.A. clinic, and a party with the home economics girls. A highlight of the year is the outing which is taken by the boys in June. The spot selected is usually near a river or lake, where there is plenty of fishing and swimming for all. The trip is financed by money obtained from treating seed grain, selling garden seeds, and selling ice cream bars at the basketball games.

OPERETTA - PINAFORE

The production of an operetta, under the direction of Mr. Leist, became a yearly undertaking of the Chorus. This year on March 11, 12, and 13, the H.M.S. Pinafore, the story of a lass who loved a sailor, was presented. In order that more young people might have parts in the operetta two casts were organized, one group giving one performance and the other group performing twice. Acting as the accompanist was Mr. Leist.

An elaborate setting was worked out by the art committee, including a poop deck, cabin, and mast. A fishing village and a sailing vessel could be seen in the background from the deck of the H. M. S. Pinafore, the ship on which the incident takes place.

JUNIOR PROM

The annual Junior Prom, undoubtedly one of the highlights of the year, was held on May 29th with Johnny Nugent's orchestra furnishing the music. The King, Charles Zastrow and his Queen, Veronica Reince, led the grand march. The gym was decorated to depict an under-water scene, with tropical fish swimming around on the walls.

The decorating committee, working under the supervision of Jane Walker and Howard Doepke, consisted of: Edith Birdsall and Mary Ann Zastrow, co-chairmen; Charles Zastrow, Lorraine Stodola, James Evans, Ed Albro, Ethel Annoye, Cecelia Cihlar, Carl Failey, Laurbelle Gilson, June Johnson, Beatrice Marin, Glen Kemp, Arnold Freix, Robert Haack, Lewis Schwedler, Veronica Reince and Bonnie Shillin.

Tom Lang, Chairman, James Lindeke, Lyla Demeuse, and Edith Slaby provided plenty of publicity for the affair. Refreshments were planned for by Mary Ann Lawrence, Jo Ann Peot, Alice Graan, and Delores Blahnik. Margaret Stade, Anna Schmitt, Marie Thiry, and Ethel Gilson had charge of the programs. Roy Baumann with the help of Robert Marr, Carl Dachelet, and Harvey Zimmerman, composed the clean-up committee.

THE GRID SEASON

ALGOMA LOSES TO FALLS ELEVEN

Folding up in the second half, the Algoma High "gridders" were defeated at Oconto Falls 23-7, in the opener of the Northeastern Wisconsin Conference eastern division. The first half was even, each team scoring once. Algoma's marker was made on a pass from Marr to Eggert, in the closing minutes of the first half. In the second half, Oconto Falls cinched the game, by pushing over two more touchdowns and a safety. Next week it's Oconto at Perry Athletic Field.

WOLVES DEFEAT OCONTO GRIDERS FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

This smashing victory, registered by the Wolves over Oconto, was the first in almost twenty years of gridiron clashes between the two teams. By taking advantage of the breaks and making some of their own, the Wolves routed Oconto to the tune of 27-7. Two touchdowns were made by Wichman and Gerondale on passes from Marr. The other two were made by Freix and Marr with Kemp converting for the extra point. As a result of this victory, Sturgeon Bay had better watch out, for the Wolves seem to be on the march.

WOLVES DEFEATED AT BAY'S HOMECOMING

The Bays, keyed for their homecoming, took the measure of the Wolves 25-0. A first period drive by Sturgeon Bay was stopped on the Wolves 13 yard line. This gave the Algoma fans something to think about. In the second period, a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone by Sturgeon Bay, started the ball rolling. When the dust (sorry) mud cleared, the Bay was on top 25-0. The Wolves will face a severe test of strength, when they meet the league leading Raiders of Two Rivers at Perry Athletic Field.

WOLVES LOSE TO TWO RIVERS

Two Rivers Raiders showed their superiority by scoring on the first play of the game. Later in the first period they scored again making the score 13-0. The first play of the second quarter, Marr shot a long pass to Gerondale who went the rest of the way for a touchdown, making the score 13-6. Two Rivers recovered their stride and scored three more times to defeat a fighting group of Wolves with a score of 34-6.

WOLVES LOSE TO DE PERE BY SMALL MARGIN

Unable to get going until late in the game, the Wolves lost another tough one. De Pere's RedBirds worked hard, and along with a few breaks scored once in each of the first three quarters. Algoma finally got a long delayed start and pushed over a touchdown on a long march which covered sixty-five yards. Freix went over for the marker, but this wasn't enough. The Wolves had tasted something sweet and wanted more. A long pass from Wichman to Gerondale, and Algoma racked up another touchdown. Another march was started by the Wolves but the clock stopped their efforts and the game ended with a victory of 19-14 for De Pere. Next week our opponent will be Catholic Central at Green Bay.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL AND WOLVES TIE WITH 13 ALL

The Wolves scored during the first three minutes on a pass from Wichman to Eggert after a series of first downs. It all seemed too simple. A little later a blocked Algoma punt on the two yard line and then a plunge for the touchdown made the score tied. Early in the second half Central scored again. The Wolves came bouncing back late in the fourth quarter to score and tie the game. Friex went over for the tying touchdown. Next week will be our Homecoming game with Kewaunee, which was postponed October 18.

ALGOMA TURNS BACK KEWAUNEE 12-0

The spirit of the Wolves, plus some beautiful ball handling, combined to defeat our traditional rivals, on a field that was covered with mud puddles and snow. The Wolves scored in the first and second quarters. Both touchdowns were made by Eldor Eggert on tricky plays. It was the Wolves' "Homecoming", and the weather couldn't keep away the largest crowd ever to witness a football game at Algoma. The seniors, who were in the last game they will play for Algoma High School, put on a brilliant exhibition of football. Jim Gerondale, Eldor Eggert, Carl Wichman, Norman Hostak, Sidney Holub, Harvey Daul, and Don Cook, the senior football players graduating this year, will be missed in 1942.

Wolves 18 - Two Rivers 33

The Wolves opened the season at the home of the state champs---Two Rivers. The first half was close all the way, with the Raiders on top 12-7. The second half jinx still followed the Wolves around, and they came out on the shorter end of the 33-18 count. Eggert led the Wolves with five points.

Wolves 23 - Redbirds 34

Algoma was host to De Pere's Redbirds. These giants (average 6' 3") looked in the start as though they were going to run away with the Wolves (average 5'10"). They led in the first quarter by a score of 12-6. The Wolves made a real game of it, tying the score at the end of third quarter. During the last four minutes, the tide turned De Pere's way, and they won by a score of 23-34.

Wolves 34 - Oconto 38

In a thriller, the Oconto boys snatched victory right out of the hands of the Wolves in the last few minutes of the game. Weakened by the loss of three regulars who were out on fouls, the Wolves couldn't stave off the last minute rush of the Oconto boys. The final score was 38-34. Algoma led the half, 25-22. Gerondale led the Wolves with ten points.

Wolves 39 - Cherrylanders 22

The Wolves romped to an easy victory over the Cherrylanders by a score of 39-22. Starting off fast, Algoma's Wolves led by Kemp and Gerondale, built up a 12-2 lead at the quarter, and stretching it to 26-4 at the half. With reserves finishing up the game, Algoma coasted in to an easy victory.

Wolves 43 - State Champs 41

The biggest upset of the year was executed by the Wolves in their defeat of Two Rivers, the State Champions, 43-41. The game was the most exciting ever seen on the Algoma court in years. Never more than two points separated the opposing teams all the way. Gerondale and Kemp scored 33 points between them to lead the Wolves in that department. At the half Two Rivers led 22-21. By the end of the third quarter the Wolves had hopped into the lead by one point, and grimly hung on until the end of the game. After the game, one of the grandest celebrations ever held at Algoma, was staged.

Wolves 31 - Oconto Falls 30

The Wolves eked out another close one at Oconto Falls 31-30. Lindeke's basket in the last seconds of the game sent the crowd into hysterics and the Wolves took the lead. The Falls team had just enough time to get their hands on the ball and the final horn blew. The Wolves had jumped into what seemed to be a commanding lead 24-17 at the half. Algoma saw their lead dwindle and saw the Falls boys go ahead by seven points. With three minutes to go, our boys woke up and scored eight quick points to win their third in a row.

Wolves 26 - Kewaunee 24

The Wolves, at the expense of Kewaunee, ran their winning streak to four straight. Algoma, before the largest crowd ever to witness a game here, came from behind to defeat their age old rivals. Kewaunee at one time led 9-1; but at the half Algoma had gone into the lead 12-11. It stayed that way until two minutes before the end, when Kewaunee led 24-21. Zastrow's free throw and Gerondale's two field goals gave Algoma victory, 26-24.

Wolves 36 - Oconto 31

The Wolves climbed into a tie for third place by easily trimming Oconto 36-31. Algoma held a ten point lead or more throughout the game. Next year's team played the entire fourth quarter, and gave all the indications of a winning team for next season. Red Kemp led the Wolves in scoring with nine points.

Wolves 29 - De Pere 30

The Wolves lost a thriller to De Pere 30-29. Algoma, after leading all the way, lost the game in the waning seconds. Big Bob Hermans shoved in the winning basket. Kemp sparked the Wolves to their efforts which just fell short. The score at the half was 16-15. This game clinched the championship for the DePere Redbirds.

Wolves 34 - Sturgeon Bay 23

The last N.E. Conference game of the 1941 season for the Wolves was easily taken from Sturgeon Bay. The final score was 43-23. Algoma held big leads all the way and was never in danger. Gerondale led the Wolves with 13 points. Next week the Wolves play in the regional tournament at Two Rivers.

BASKETBALL MAJOR LETTERMEN

Glen Kemp	Jim Gerondale
Bud Eggert	Bud Kirchman
Pete Weber	Chuck Zastrow
Jim Slaby	Jim Lindeke

Two Rivers defeated the Wolves in the first game of the tournament, 29-21. The game was decided in the third quarter, when Two Rivers scored eleven points and Algoma 0. The score at the half was 13-11 in favor of Two Rivers. Kemp and Gerondale led the Wolves with seven points apiece.

Algoma took the measure of Casco with a score of 30-20. This win entitled the Wolves to play for consolation championship in the tournament. Casco at one time held a ten point lead over the Wolves, who, led by Zastrow, came storming back to take an easy victory.

Consolation honors were won by Algoma in the tournament. In the consolation game, the Wolves easily defeated Plymouth 21-13. Three seniors, Jim Gerondale, Pete Weber, and "Bud" Eggert, completed their athletic careers, at Algoma High School in a blaze of glory. The Wolves finished a successful season this year with a record of twelve wins and seven losses.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Soon after the holidays, Coach Harold Schumerth issued a call for all boys interested in intramural basketball. Mondays after school were set aside for playing these intramural games. Boys, who answered the call, were divided into six teams. Events started off with a bang with the Bulls, Packers, and Redskins each winning their first game. It was a close race to the finish with the Packers finally coming out at the top.

Teams	Captains	W.	L.	Pct.
Packers	A. Hucek	4	1	.800
Bulls	R. Uecker	3	2	.600
Rams	J. Evans	3	2	.600
Redskins	J. Nessinger	3	2	.600
Bears	J. Miller	2	3	.400
Lions	H. Perlewitz	0	5	.000

BASEBALL

Mr. Doepke succeeded Mr. Canney as baseball coach and did a very fine job. His baseball team turned in a good performance last season by winning twice and losing one game. The two victories were over Sturgeon Bay and Luxemburg, and the setback was handed them by Sturgeon Bay. Algoma's most impressive victory was over Sturgeon Bay, in which no errors were chalked up for the Algoma boys.

WOLVETTES

Our athletically-inclined young ladies have again been organized this year into a club. Every Friday, after school, twenty-five basketball enthusiasts learned the fundamentals of the game, including the correct way of handling the ball, how to dribble, and of course most important of all, how to make a basket. Miss Jane Walker was general coach and faculty adviser of the teams.

Members were divided into teams and played a game with Forestville Victory School. The score was Algoma 24, Forestville 10. The team consisted of the following players: Marjorie Toppe, center; Doris Fox and Jeanette Faken, forward; and Frances Klarowske and Audrey Hoppe, guards. The substitutes were: Pearl Demeuse and Gertrude Knutson, guards, and Marjorie Moore and Shirley Stephenson, forwards. An enthusiastic crowd gathered to cheer Algoma's girls to victory.

AD LIBBING

Mr. Schulz: "If we breathe in oxygen in the daytime what do we breathe in at night?"

John: "We breathe nitrogen at night."

Miss Higgins: "Wallace, how did you make out in your examinations?"

Wallace: "Just like Napoleon."

Miss Higgins: "How do you mean?"

Wallace: "I went down in history."

Miss T.: Give me a sentence using the word "fascinate."

Vincent: There was a fat man who had ten buttons on his vest, but he could only fasten eight.

Miss Boedecker: "Peter, how'd you like to be great enough to have your face on a dollar bill?"

Pete: "I'd just like to have my hands on it."

"Class Attention," cried Coach to a physical education class.

"Class, lift up your left leg and hold it straight out in front of you."

By mistake Kemp held up his right leg which brought it out side by side, with his neighbor's left leg.

"And who is the dummy over there holding up both legs?" shouted Coach.

Mr. Doepke: "What is a vacuum?"

Jim: "I have it in my head but I can't explain it."

Mr. Knezevich: "Where are cells found?"

Howard: "In any prison."

Wichman: "Did you take my time?"

Coach: "I didn't have to, you took it your self."

Bob: "I saw a dog who could do a somersault."

Lloyd: "That's nothing, I saw a horse that could turn cartwheels."

Everything in the book-store has gone up except letters and paper, they are stationery.

Harvey D.: (excitedly) "Can you imagine me getting an average of 99.5?"

Jirtle K.: "You did! Congratulatlions."

Harvey D.: "Not so fast. I said can you imagine."

Mr. K.: Give me a sentence using the word "antitoxin."

Jim P.: My auntie talks in her sleep.

Pete: (At football game) "Did you see those two peroxide blondes that got so excited over the game?"

Don: "Yeah, the bleachers went wild."

Freshman: "Mama, may I go out tonight?"

Sophomore: "Ma, goin' out, will be home at ten."

Junior: "Going out tonight Dad."

Senior: "Goodnight Dad, I'll bring in the milk."

Flunkers Fritters

4 cups of late hours

2-3 pints of bluffing

3 tbsp. of whispering

1 gram of good marks

Stir the whole to a smooth inconsistency. Fry in a kettle of boiling impatience. The teacher's motto-"They shall not pass."

Throughout the game an enthusiastic fan had urged our team to victory. Suddenly he became silent, turned to his companion and whispered, "I've lost my voice." "Don't worry, was the reply. "You'll find it in my left ear."

Daffynitions

Banana peel: Food article that brings the weight down.

Man: The only animal that can be skinned only once.

Souvenir: Any cute doodad you wouldn't pay a nickel for if you saw it in a store back home.

Etc.: Sign used to make others believe you know more than you do.

Vacuum: Nothing shut up in a box.

Horrible Example: Any problem in mathematics.
