YOUTH EDUCATION PLAYS ITS PART

1945

ALGOMA HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS OF 1945

P R E S E N T S

SCROLL OF THE WOLVES

ALGOMA, WISCONSIN

Foreword

"United we stand for victory" has been chosen as the theme for the Scroll of the Wolves in 1945. It is the sincere hope that this yearbook will not only recall high school days but that it will also urge unity of mind and purpose in the future. The student of today is the voter of tomorrow and upon him will depend the success of democracy. Although the past year has been difficult because of the war and war work, everyone has carried the additional burden well. It is through this effort during such trying times that the class of 1945 has received its training at Algoma High School. Just as they can never forget this great democracy they shall never forget their Alma Mater.

Loyalty Song

We'll fight for our Alma Mater,
And sing to her fame.
We'll cheer her royal banner
And glorify her name.
Our faith will go on forever;
Our hope never die.
We'll raise our own Algoma
To the victor's throne on high.

Dedication

We, the A. H. S. students, dedicate the 1945 "Scroll of the Wolves" to the future, and to a better world for which service men and women are now fighting. The past is over—the present cannot be changed. But the future is ours—it belongs to us, and to us alone. Therefore, we dedicate ourselves to the immense problem confronting us—we must see to it that we not only win the war but also win the peace.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It is gratifying to know that the "Scroll of the Wolves" is once more being unfolded in the form of a yearbook. In so doing it accomplishes at least two important functions.

The first of these is the giving of an opportunity to the student body to see the fruit of its labors appear in a concrete form for public inspection and approval. And indeed a great deal of energetic promoting, careful planning, scholarly editing, and other types of work, some interesting and some merely necessary labor, are required to produce a publication such as this. The result is a book which reflects the spirit of the whole school and which is a tribute to those who worked on it and to the one who so capably guided their efforts. To all these go our congratulations and praise.

The second function is one which will become more apparent to those of us who have passed the high school age and is one which lasts through the years. As time dims our memories this book will serve as a bond between then and now. Old classmates and friends, teachers long since forgotten, school parties, athletic contests, pranks both clever and foolish, and other events will be brought into sharp focus through this medium.

It was partly with this second function in mind, and partly because their clear-thinking minds see the real significance of education, that the staff dedicated this book to the future. Certainly no other institution is more dedicated to the future than the school. It is good to realize that our student-body, showing clearly their above average character, regards Algoma High School as a place where their futures are shaped and not merely a pleasant place in which to while away their adolescent years.

Thus, while we live for the future, this book, as a part of our past, holds much that we treasure.

SCHOOL BOARD

We, the students of the Algoma High School, in recognition of the untiring efforts put forth by our Board of Education to secure a well-balanced system of education in our school, wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation and gratitude to each member for his work well done.

The Board's job was especially difficult during these last years with our nation involved in a war, but again they have succeeded in securing a capable faculty and supervising principal. Their ceaseless work shows that the Board is composed of praiseworthy men.

School Song

It's your school and it's my school,
We'll fight to bring it fame
And to show we have the spirit,
We'll be at every game.

We fight fair and we play square
And proudly we confess
The man who cowers at defeat
Is not in A. H. S.

Alma Mater

By old Michigan's proud waters,
Rolling waves of blue,
Stands Wisconsin's fairest high school,
Alma Mater true.
Sing her praises, let the chorus
Ring o'er land and sea,
Hail, Algoma, Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee!

SEASON OPENS WITH VICTORY 28-6

The Algoma Wolves opened the 1944 football season with an impressive victory over a small but spirited De Pere High team. The highlight of the game came when Seiler returned a kickoff seventy-five yards for a touchdown. DeDecker and Deprey turned on the heat in a fine display of hard running, while Slaby and Storm tossed the leather to Seiler for long gains. A safety made up for two tries after touchdowns that were missed. Although they were heavily outweighed the opponents forced over a touchdown in the third period of an otherwise one-sided game.

ALGOMA IN EASY WIN 27-0

Though reserve players saw almost as much action as the regulars, the Wolves had little trouble with the Oconto Falls Panthers. The game gave special interest to the folks at home because the WMAM station broadcasted a play by play account of the game. Points were accounted for by Deprey, Slaby, DeDecker and Storm with one safety and an extra point completing the scoring for the day. An alert pass defense turned several Panther threats to score.

WOLVES TAKE HOME TILT 35-0

Algoma held the tie for first place with Two Rivers by defeating the Blue Devils in the first home game of the season for the Wolves. Slaby, Qualman, Seiler and Blahnik accounted for all the scoring with DeDecker adding four extra points and Poehls one. Besides displaying skill in kicking extra points, DeDecker turned in a fine performance at the fullback spot. The greatest threat of the Blue Devils was their passing attack which, fortunately, was stopped short of the goal line.

ALGOMA AND BAYS IN STALEMATE 0-0

The Wolves winning streak was snapped at the end of three games as the underdog Bay team battled their way to a scoreless tie with the heavily favored Wolves. It was a hard fought battle with the thrill of the game coming a few minutes after the opening kickoff, when Bud Poehls, Algoma halfback, cut through tackle and broke away for a brilliant fifty-five yard advance down to the Bay nine yard line. This threat, however, was stopped short of the goal by a hard charging Bay forward wall. The "Cherrylanders" used the raw, cold, windy weather to their advantage in stunning Algoma's offensive thrusts until late in the game when the Wolves moved up the field some sixty yards in a sustained drive only to lose the ball on a disheartening fumble in the last minutes of the game on the Bay nine yard line.

WOLVES DROP HOMECOMING GAME 25-0

In a game which decided who was to rule the conference the Two Rivers Air Patrol came through victorious. The invaders pushed across four touchdowns and held Algoma scoreless. Although playing a listless first half the Wolves dominated play in the last half, holding the opponents to a lone touchdown. The defensive play of Seiler, DeDecker and Deprey was outstanding for the Wolves.

ALGOMA LOSES THRILLER 6-0

Playing the hardest fought game of the season the Wolves dropped a close decision to the visiting Indians. The only touchdown of the game coming as a result of an Algoma fumble deep in Kewaunee territory. Victory was denied Algoma when Storm, late in the game, broke away and ran through the entire Kewaunee team and crossed the goal line, only to have the play recalled because of a clipping penalty on the five-yard line.

Ten seniors played their last game for the Wolves. Those who won't be back next year are: Slaby, Storm, Deprey, Vlies, Densow, Fulwiler, Iwen, Poehls, Pfuehler and Zimmerman.

ALGOMA 33 — KEWAUNEE 25

In a bang-up game Algoma beat Kewaunee. The game was close and played well by both teams. Algoma's alertness and drive won the game. The Wolves capitalized on the breaks and made them count. Slaby led Algoma with 17 points.

ALGOMA 26 — DE PERE 22

Although De Pere led throughout most of the game they were beaten in the last quarter. The last few minutes the Wolves had to really play ball. Seiler had 10 points to lead Algoma's scoring.

ALGOMA 42 — OCONTO 16

In a game that saw scoring from almost all the players, Algoma trounced Oconto. The game was played smoothly and the Wolves were strong on defense. Blahnik and Vlies each had 9 points.

ALGOMA 50 — STURGEON BAY 20

The Wolves got off to a fast start and proved too much for the Bay's inexperienced team. Algoma's shooting in the first half wasn't too good but in the second half was terrific. Vlies led the home boys with 17 points.

ALGOMA 36 — TWO RIVERS 27

In a game that saw Algoma behind most of the time the Wolves turned out victorious. In the final quarter Schmitz and Vlies each dropped a bucket to sew up the game. After these buckets, it was easy to get more.

ALGOMA 41 — OCONTO FALLS 17

Algoma got off to a slow start and led by only one point at the quarter. The rest of the game the local boys set a torrid pace which was more than a match for the Falls. Slaby had 10 points.

ALGOMA 37 — KEWAUNEE 40

The Wolves lost a thrilling, hard played, overtime game to the Indians. The score was knotted 35 apiece at the end of the regulation game. Kewaunee's control of rebounds and jump balls was the winning factor. Seiler had 17 points.

ALGOMA 28 — DE PERE 25

The Wolves were fortunate in getting a win from De Pere. It was not until the last two minutes that Algoma tied the score and then made three points to win the game.

ALGOMA 37 — OCONTO 35

The Wolves led throughout the match and held margins as great as 12 points. Some of the second team played the last five minutes. They staved off Oconto's rally to win. Slaby had 15 points.

ALGOMA 44 — STURGEON BAY 24

The local boys put on a shooting exhibition as they trimmed the Bay. The play was fast and exciting. The score was once 22 to 24 but then the Wolves went hot. Schmitz led Algoma with 12 points.

ALGOMA 37 — TWO RIVERS 31

Algoma started at a terrific pace but Two Rivers came back to tie the score at the quarter. The Wolves were then held to two points in the second quarter. The second half the home team staged a rally and came out victorious. Seiler had 12 points and Schmitz 11.

ALGOMA 34 — OCONTO FALLS 25

The Wolves got off to a slow start and were behind until the middle of the third quarter. Algoma then hit the hoop and started to roll up some points. The game was a rough and tumble affair.

BOYS' BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

ALGOMA 47 — PULASKI 26

The Wolves started out the tournament with a determination to go places. The boys were unsteady but finally hit their pace. In the second half the team pulled ahead and never was threatened from then on. Slaby led the Wolves with 16 points.

ALGOMA 22 — SHAWANO 40

The game started off slow and saw the local boys in the running. The half ended 13 to 11 in favor of Shawano. The Indians got a few buckets and the Wolves had to switch defense in order to get the ball. A few lapses gave Shawano more scores. Al Vlies had 10 points.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Twenty young and healthy girls signed up for the active sport of basketball this year, under the direction of Miss Rusch. Every Friday, after school, these young Wolvettes learn the fundamentals of the game and increase their ability to make baskets. The purpose of the activity is to encourage athletics for girls of high school, to develop the spirit of sportsmanship, and to create good fellowship among the students.

For the purpose of having inter-team games, the group has been divided into two teams, each having its own captain. The girls elected as captains were Shirley Albrecht and Lois Stuth.

An inter-team preliminary game was played Friday evening, December 8, 1944. It proved to be an interesting game for it was hard to keep track of the ball. It was usually found in the scramble of girls! Our coach, Miss Rusch, scheduled games for the season with several neighboring schools. A game was played at Luxemburg on February 1, during which the girls played very well but did not come out as winners. The final score was 13-7 in favor of the Luxemburg girls.

VOICE OF YOUTH

Though this year's number of experienced debaters amounted to the rather inadequate number of two, the turnout of new recruits was most encouraging. Venice Berg and Shirley Hanson would have formed the only A team, but because of the larger supply of B debaters they split partnership, each taking on a B debater with whom to debate. Under the direction of Miss Helen Gibertini, the teams formed as follows: Affirmative A — Shirley Hanson and Martha Miller; Negative A — Venice Berg and Shirley Albrecht; Affirmative B — Louise Fluck and Lois Heidmann; and Negative B — Joan Stade and Donna Dier.

The question this year was: "Resolved that the legal voting age should be reduced to eighteen." The entire squad participated in a practice debate at Kaukauna in December and then finished the season at the final meet in Two Rivers where they gained valuable experience.

JOURNALISM CLUB

Organized in 1926 with Miss Reinke as instructor the News Staff of A. H. S. began as a class of three members. This year the club consists of thirty-seven members, with Miss Rusch as adviser.

At the beginning of the year the following officers were elected: Mildreth Hood, editor; and Shirley Hanson, junior editor. The club meets at intervals to discuss the duties of the members and any activities of the club.

General news is collected from interviews with the faculty. The articles are then checked by the adviser, Miss Rusch, and then typed by advanced typing students. Because of the lack of a school paper the articles are printed in the Algoma Record-Herald as "A. H. S. Highlights." One of the most popular features in the column is "Tid Bits" in which is printed the humorous side of school life.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The chief aim of the F. H. A. is to promote better living and more healthful homes in the future. In order to become a member of this organization, the Future Homemakers of America, one must be a participant in one of the Home Economics classes. The officers of the club are: president, Ramona Heuer; vice president, Kitty Ann Gerondale; secretary, Jean Mikle; treasurer, Lila Sibilsky; historian, Ruth Poehls. There are seventy girls enrolled as members under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Sultze.

One of the most important activities of the club was the State Fair Style Review. The participants were Verna Kostichka and Ruth Stoller. These girls were eligible for the State Fair Review because they had been winners of the county contest held previously. Verna Kostichka won the second prize at the State Fair.

Another of the main events sponsored by the F. H. A. was the combined Sadie Hawkins Week and Sweater Swirl. The girls are very glad they are not boys for they found out how much nerve it takes to ask someone to go to a dance with you. Other social and business activities are: Initiation, Homecoming, Hallowe'en party with F. F. A. boys, and the Style Review. The girls have been active in Red Cross work, for they help roll bandages with the regular Red Cross Chapter members at the Dug-out.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization whose aim is to develop vocational agriculture. The Algoma chapter was organized and it received its charter from the national organization thirteen years ago.

Under the direction of Mr. Roy Koss, the club elected the following officers: president, Vincent Delain; vice president, Rochus Kerscher; secretary, Robert DeLarwelle; treasurer, Ken Burke; and reporter, Cyril Halada. There are twenty-nine members in the local F. F. A. chapter. Twenty boys are first year members.

Among the club's activities are: the annual parents' and sons' banquet, parties with the home economics girls, State and County Fair exhibits, basketball games, camping trip, educational trip, treating of seed grain, selling garden seeds, participation in a speaking contest, and introducing pure bred grain into the community. The officers and adviser of the local chapter accepted an invitation to initiate the green hands of the Oconto Falls F. F. A. In return the officers and adviser of Oconto Falls initiated the green hands of the local chapter.

Since the club was organized in 1931, nine members have received the State farmer's degree and one has received the American farmer's degree. This year Cyril Halada met the requirements of a state farmer. About eighty per cent of the boys enrolled in the agriculture classes are in the F. F. A.

STUDENT FORUM

The "Student Forum," which was started seven years ago, was organized this year with an enrollment of forty-one members. Officers were elected and a program for the following weeks was planned. Carole Heidmann was elected president; Ramona Heuer, secretary; Verna Kostichka, vice president; and Lenore Bogdon, treasurer. Topics that were discussed were those relating to modern youth in wartime and post-war problems.

The club met every other Wednesday during the eighth period for the remainder of the year. Current topics were discussed to help the students become familiar with the rights of all Americans to voice their opinions, because they realize that these rights which we are fighting for have a great influence on developing citizenship.

The method used by "Town Meeting of the Air" radio programs is followed at the Student Forum meetings. The topics chosen for meetings were: World War II, Rationing, Post-war plans, Maintaining Morale, and Recreation for Young People. Current developments in the news were also discussed at sessions of the organization. "Let's face the issue" has become the slogan of the group, which aims to clarify ideas in the democratic way.

A Valentine Party was given on February 14. Games were played and a treat was served.

Let us Have Music

BAND

Drums, cornets, tubas, French horns, clarinets, flutes, saxophones—fifty-one all told—harmoniously blended to produce beautiful music—that is the ideal of the Algoma High School band, ably directed by Willard Jonas. The band room, popularly known as the "noise factory" of the school, is the scene of much practicing and many rehearsals, whose aim is the achievement of the ideal.

The concert band attended the music festival held at Oshkosh on May 6, 1944. The band entered as a Class B band placing first in concert and third in marching. A saxophone duet by Rachel Hrabik and Shirley Stephenson, and a clarinet solo by Shirley Hanson, received outstanding awards in the solo and ensemble division. Marjory Moore, Joyce Birdsall, James Pfile, Rachel Hrabik, and Shirley Hanson were chosen by the band members to represent Algoma in the festival band which played in the evening at Oshkosh.

The Christmas concert was given December 20, 1944. The program was made up of Christmas selections including a tone poem "Monastery at Sunset" for piano and band.

In addition to their annual Christmas and spring concerts, members of the group furnish music for assemblies, pep-meetings, football and basketball games, and other school functions.

Strictly Solid

THE ORCHESTRA

During the year the dance orchestra has made marked progress. It was generally conceded that the orchestra would not be as good as last year since most of the "stars" had graduated. However, a group of fine young talent came along and surprised everyone. The orchestra proved to be very popular with the students.

Playing for high school parties was the main activity of the orchestra. In October, they played for a homecoming dance. Delightful programs in Assembly have also been provided.

The dinner-theater party, which has been an annual event, was held at Green Bay. The group enjoyed a chicken dinner at Mae Dury's and a movie at a local Green Bay theater.

Mr. Jonas, who directed the orchestra, met with them every Thursday night. All the members were selected from the high school band except the piano players.

ADVANCED CHORUS

In May, 1944, the chorus attended the tournament at Oshkosh under the direction of Mr. Jones, the previous director, now teaching at Sheboygan. The chorus sang "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho" and "Open Our Eyes," receiving an award of first place.

This year the group experienced a change of directors, although it was only the difference of changing an "e" to an "a", from Mr. Jones to Mr. Jonas. Under the able leadership of Mr. Jonas, the chorus put on its annual Christmas concert, December 20, 1944. The cantata was entitled "Glory in the Highest."

The chorus has other activities to perform. It participates in the operetta, music festival, various patriotic programs, and high school assemblies. This year the operetta, annual high-light for the chorus, was the "Marriage of Nanette" given February 22. The accompanists at the operetta were Mrs. Jonas and Ramona Heuer.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The night that the curtain opened for the play, "Footloose," found the senior actors of '45 with the usual case of nerves. They need not have worried because this comedy, directed by Miss Helen Gibertini, kept the audience in laughter throughout the three acts.

The plot of "Footloose" revolved about the Early family in which the mother, Emily, had always been domineering. Troubles began when the parents were off on a vacation. The children, Mary and Bob, two lively high school "kids;" Hope, a social service worker; and Dick, a senior medical student; have their problems while left alone. Before their parents returned, Bob had bought a car, smashed it, and was in debt for $250; Mary had switched boy friends; Hope was in love with a young lawyer; and Dick had married against the wishes of his father. Believe it or not things worked out. When the parents returned from their vacation they found a very independent but stable family.

JUNIOR PROM

By far the most important social event of the year for the Junior Class is that of the Prom. The girls become excited about what color of dress to get and the boys wonder which girl to take. The class of '46 chose as their prom king "Bud" Schmitz and the queen was Donna Kolstad. The Prom was held May 18 in the high school gym with Duke Janda and his orchestra furnishing the music. The class advisers, Miss Marie Shimek and Miss Lila Rusch, were also the advisers for the Prom.

The decorating committee, with Lee DeDecker and Shirley Hanson as co-chairmen, chose "Maytime" as their theme. This outstanding scene centered around a huge Maypole from which hung pastel shaded streamers. Some of the other committees were: the publicity committee under the leadership of Donna Kolstad; cleanup committee, with Paul Lidral, chairman; music committee, with Margaret Prausa and Dean Hrabik co-chairmen; and the refreshment committee, with Ramona Heuer, chairman. The Prom king and queen chose four couples as their court of honor.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

"Dearest Jeanne," wrote Densow, who was hopelessly in love. "I could swim the mighty ocean for one glance from your dear eyes. I would walk through a wall of flame for one touch of your little hands. I would leap the widest stream for a word from your lovely lips.

As always,
Dens

P.S. I'll be over Saturday night if it doesn't rain."

Jeanette: Nancy, you're a card.

Nancy: Why?

Jeanette: You even shuffle when you walk.

Coach: Ken, what you need is more ambition.

Ken: Ambition! That's just a poor excuse for not being lazy.

Teacher: Leo, can you define fuzz?

Leo B.: Well, fuzz is what if a caterpillar didn't have it would be an angleworm.

Coach: Your answer reminds me of Quebec.

Gasey: Why?

Coach: Built on a bluff.

Miss Higgins: Richard, how did the Pilgrims come over?

Dick M.: With an Orchestra.

Miss H.: Are you sure? What does it say in your book?

Dick M.: Well, it says a band of Pilgrims came over!

Baldy: Miss Gibertini, if I study too hard my brain will sweat and then I'll get water on the brain.

Miss G.: Then I'll have to wear pumps instead of glasses.

Miss Rusch: How dare you swear before me?

Densow: How in the heck did I know you wanted to swear first?

Mother: I hear you were kept after school today, Ken.

Ken P.: The teacher told us to write an essay on "The Results of Laziness" and I turned in a blank sheet of paper.

Bob S.: Ralph, congratulate me. I won the election for class president.

Ralph: Honestly?

Bob: Oh! Well let's not bring that up.

Miss Higgins: What is a bounty?

Dick M.: That's when there are wolves on the farmer's land and you get paid to shoot 'em off.

Bruiser: Say, Ray, does your face hurt you?

Ray F.: No, why?

Bruiser: Well, gee, it's killing me!

Mr. Thorpe: Today we will study about the three electrical rays. They are the alpha ray, beta ray and gamma ray.

Rip: Are they any relation to Baby Ray? (Fulwiler)

Johnny: The tires on the old car are not so good. I'm expecting the air to show through almost any day.

Hoppe: Hello, sugar.

Girl:

Hoppe: Oh, well.

Walt Poehls: I read in a book that there is a bed in Russia twenty feet long.

Bud Sibilsky: I dunno—sounds like a lot of bunk to me.

Miss G.: Seiler, give me a sentence containing flippancy.

Seiler: Let's flip'n'see whether I pass or flunk.

Bob D.: What is the date please?

Miss Rusch: Never mind the date, the test is more important.

Bob D.: Well, I want to have something to write on my paper.

Albert: What were you doing outside Wheeler's yesterday?

Stuie: I stay there.

Albert: What! You stay at Wheeler's?

Stuie: No, outside.

Miss Rusch: Why are you not writing?

Russ M.: (sitting idly during writing time) I ain't got no pen.

Miss Rusch: Where's your grammar?

Russ M.: She's dead.

Marty M.: You know what, Freddie reminds me of a human dynamo.

Joany: Why?

Marty: Because everything he owns is charged.

LaVerne: Did you enjoy your canal ride with Jimmy?

Marty: No, he was too cautious. He just hugged the shore.

Miss Rusch: David, why are you late for class again?

David S.: Well, you said we should always read signs and do as they say. The sign I read was four blocks away and said, "Slow, School."

Quarterback: 1-2-3-Hip!

1st Football Fan: I thought they were playing football.

2nd Fan: They are.

1st Fan: It sounds like the "conga" to me.
