SCROLL OF THE WOLVES

ALGOMA, WISCONSIN

FOREWORD

Aviation minded students of Algoma High would like to have you join them on a flight to visit the campus of A. H. S. A successful and enjoyable year has just been finished which annual staff members have pictured so that the activities of the year will be recorded for time to come.

Besides learning to be good losers as well as victors, the students of Algoma have gained practical knowledge, have learned to think as a free people, and have found an appreciation for the fine arts.

Like other progressive communities the citizens of Algoma have plans for a new airport and will keep step with the Air Age. Education at A. H. S. is geared to the tempo of preparing its youth to contribute their share in building a better postwar America.

IN MEMORIAM

We, the seniors of Algoma High School, deeply regret that we are not able to have with us our classmate, Richard Kerscher, at the time of our graduation.

Although he has graduated early from the School of Life, we shall always remember his pleasant personality which made him well liked by everyone.

Since we have had you for a friend
You cannot go away;
Within our lives which shared you
Forever you shall stay.
Here are the rooms where once we met
And we shall find this true,
That all that you have touched has kept
Some gentle thought of you
Yes, here forever you must dwell
As part of us you stay,
And though too soon you said farewell,
You did not go away.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Seldom do the School Board members receive enough credit for the many benefits they bring to our school and its students. These men give up many of their leisure hours to regulate school affairs to the satisfaction of all.

In years past, three members made up the School Board. This year there have been five members since Algoma now has a city school system. These men are all very capable and it is through their efforts that the Algoma High School maintains a high standard of education.

We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation for the many things the School Board has done. They represent the effective link which binds the school and community.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The bringing together and publishing of this yearbook is one of the final acts of the class of 1947. In a very vivid way it symbolizes the years of education behind their graduating class. In starting in on the book the various members of the class have little or no understanding or possession of the skills, abilities, and imagination required in a project of this kind. But there stands ready to help them an experienced adviser and soon the work begins to get done. In due time, and after moments of success and failure, the finished product emerges ready to perform the task for which it was designed.

And so with the Seniors of 1947. With their teachers as their guides, they have traveled the road of education to the end of high school. Now they are ready to find their respective places in the world and to stand or fall on the merits of what has been printed on the pages of their minds. I feel confident of their ability to compete and wish them long, useful, and happy lives.

School Song

It's your school and it's my school,
We'll fight to bring it fame
And to show we have the spirit,
We'll be at every game.

We fight fair and we play square
And proudly we confess
The man who cowers at defeat
Is not in A. H. S.

Alma Mater

By old Michigan's proud waters,
Rolling waves of blue,
Stands Wisconsin's fairest high school,
Alma Mater true.
Sing her praises, let the chorus
Ring o'er land and sea,
Hail, Algoma, Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee!

SALUTATORIAN—Wallace Hoffman

SCHOLARSHIP KEYS

"KIND LADY"

The Senior Class on May 24th presented "Kind Lady," a melodrama by Edward Chodorov. It was adopted from a story by Hugh Walpole. The play was under the direction of Mr. Herold.

The "kind lady" was a dignified and aristocratic middle-aged woman. She bestowed charity on a shabby painter who in turn moved in on her with a malicious group of people. This group convinced her friends and the outside world that she was insane. Up to the end it looked as though the kind lady was doomed to lose not only her entire property but her sanity, when with supreme effort of courage and skill she managed to convey word to the outside world of the true situation.

JUNIOR CLASS PRESENTS "NEW FIRES"

The semi-comedy, "New Fires," by Charles Q. Burdette, was presented by a cast of fifteen juniors on April 11, under the direction of Miss Blewett.

The plot centered around Stephen Santry, an author who inherited a small farm in the Missouri Ozarks from an eccentric old uncle. He brought his family for a visit to his farm, but during their stay scarlet fever broke out and the family was quarantined for a month. There was much confusion during this time, but in the end the members of the family were more united to the basic principles which they had hitherto forgotten. The part of Stephen Santry was played by Donald Hanson.

JUNIOR PROM

May 10th was the night of the biggest social event of the year, the Junior Prom. The gymnasium was decorated to represent a southern scene. Harold Ferron's orchestra of Appleton furnished the music. The highlight of the evening was the grand march led by King Norman Reince and his Queen. Mr. Bleick and Miss Shimek were the faculty advisers. Lila Lou Schmidt was chairman of the decorating committee and Lois Heidmann and Francis Bair were co-chairmen of the advertising committee.

MORALE BUILDERS OF A. H. S.

Clear the way—here comes our Band! A medley of clarinets, French horns, saxophones, drums, and many other instruments when blended together make up the band. Its members dress in uniforms of black and orange. This organization is an important morale builder at Algoma High. It plays for football games, basketball games, concerts, and various other events throughout the year.

At the flicker of the baton, stirring melodies burst from the instruments of the sixty-five eager band members who are ready for action. It is more than the magic of Mr. Bleick's baton which produces the music of our band; it is also weeks of intensive practice.

The A. H. S. Band will again attend a tournament this year. The last tournament attended at Two Rivers resulted in many outstanding ratings for solos and ensembles. Out of sixteen entries made there were thirteen outstanding and first places won by Algoma. Those who attended the State Tournament included: Arnold Blahnik, Lyla Lou Schmidt, Ione Rohr, Charles Stach, Delores Worachek, Shirley Kirchman. A quintet and sextet also went to Madison. The quintet included Jean Haasch, Louise Fluck, Betty Ackerman, Verna Kostichka and Nancy Jerabek; while the sextet members were Arnold Blahnik, Robert Naze, Donald Pfile, Betty Ackerman, Edward Wacek, and Charles Stach.

Four members of the band were chosen to play in the Simon Festival Band at Oshkosh, February 10, 1947. They were Arnold Blahnik, Betty Ackerman, Jean Haasch, and Louise Fluck.

ON THE BEAM

Coming in with a solid session of sweet and satisfying music, the high school orchestra made its debut at the annual Homecoming Dance where Joan Bair reigned as queen. The eight dance band members are under the direction of Mr. Bleick.

This organization provided music for the high school dances which took place about every five weeks. The exact dates of the dances are decided by the Social Committee. Special occasions, such as the Christmas dance and the Junior Prom, feature an outside orchestra.

Gail Shepardson's orchestra played for the Christmas semi-formal dance held in the gymnasium. This was the first dance of its kind to be held here. The gym was decorated with blue streamers with stars attached to them. In the center of the floor was a huge Christmas tree on which were focused two colored spotlights. The dance was a success and the students are looking forward to more of its kind.

Members of the alumni were present for several of the school dances, and helped provide entertainment. Among the guests were Mark Hoppe, Ralph Detjen, and James Pfile. As a reward for their efforts during the year the orchestra members were given a banquet at Mae Dury's in Green Bay.

ON WINGS OF SONG

"One, two, three, four, and sing!" The Algoma High School Chorus of 1946-'47 was considered one of its best music organizations of recent years. The chorus is made up of upper class students and offers splendid opportunities in musical education. When the sixty-five voices blend in melodious harmony it is a pleasure to hear. Although the group was greatly depleted by the loss of seniors, there were many promising younger members who were worthy to take their places.

The annual Christmas Concert, given December 11th, was excellent. Many people who filled the auditorium heard the familiar strains of lovely Christmas Carols and other stirring selections such as "Onward Christian Soldiers," and "Hospolie Pomilui," which means "Have Mercy, Lord."

A new form of Spring Concert was given as an Easter Cantata which was received with enthusiasm by everyone. All in all, the chorus members have studied many songs, which gives them a greater appreciation of good music as well as increasing their own ability.

SCHOOL DAZE SKYWRITING

T. B. N. A. N. N.! T. B. N. A. N. N.! Yes, Tid Bits needed a new name, so the Journalism Club started the year off right by holding a contest to find one. The judging committee thought "Button Busters" would be a clever title for the joke column so Zug Zastrow and Dee Durst won a year's subscription to "School Daze."

The school newspaper was started last year and since then many new features have been added. There's plenty of humor in the feature articles, Want Ad Column, Dear Diary, and of course Button Busters, as well as news stories and a few serious thoughts in the editorials. The results of a student opinion poll are printed every month and also short biographical sketches of seniors in "Superwolves" and "Superwomen." The paper tries to present a well-rounded picture of school life including classes, sports, and club activities.

The Journalism Club's forty members have quite a job on their hands to write, type, proof read dummy, count, stencil, do art work, mimeograph, and distribute "School Daze," but they did find time for a club party. They also bought club pins.

The staff includes Louise Fluck, editor; Jean Haasch, junior editor; Lyla Schmidt, business manager; and Shirley Kirchman, circulation manager. The faculty advisers are Miss Sneesby and Miss Shimek.

KAMERA KYDS

FORENSICS

FORENSICS

Forensics, under the leadership of Mr. Herold, Miss Sneesby, Mrs. Williamson and Miss Blewett, got an early start in January this year with thirteen student contestants. Miss Sneesby was in charge of extemporaneous readings, Mrs. Williamson aided in oratory, while Miss Blewett and Mr. Herold acted as coaches for declamations.

An elimination program, held here in March, eliminated all but two participants in each division. The divisions included serious and humorous declamations, oratory, and extemporaneous readings. Two contestants in each division went to De Pere to the district contest which was held the middle of March.

STUDENT FORUM

Student Forum assembled for its organization meeting with a membership of seventeen boys and girls who wished to talk over current world affairs. Officers were elected with Ramona Stade, president; John Birdsall, vice president; Wallace Hoffman, treasurer; and Barbara Jerabek, secretary.

Plans for the club included a meeting every second Tuesday after school in the history room. Subjects to be discussed at subsequent meetings were chosen by the members. Some topics selected were the "Congressional Election," "Eightieth Congress," "The United Nations," "UNESCO" and "Our Expectations from Radio." At the beginning of each meeting a warm-up topic was used to get opinions of the members on such topics as comic books and movies. The social committee planned a stunt, contest, or treat for the closing feature of each meeting.

For aid in planning the meetings the radio program "Town Meeting of the Air," as well as "Junior Town Meeting," and news magazines were used. This helped get acquainted with radio programs and broadened the scope of current reading. Miss Higgins, as our adviser, stressed the purposes of discussion, and encouraged members to learn the democratic way of voicing their opinions.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The motto of the F. H. A., "Toward New Horizons," expresses the aim of the club which is to learn to live better today in order that the members' lives and those of their families may be better today and in the future. The emblem of the F. H. A. is a house supported by two hands which symbolizes that the future homes of America are in the hands of its youth. The colors are now red and white with a red rose as the symbolic flower of the organization. The officers are: Joyce Koenig, president; Carole Kostichka, vice president; Johanna Kroening, secretary; Betty Holdorf, treasurer; Charlotte Rutz, historian. There are now seventy girls enrolled under the direction of Miss Elaine Lohrey.

In October the F. H. A. officers met at a state convention in Wisconsin Rapids to elect officers for the year. Local delegates were Charlotte Rutz and Carole Kostichka. Verna Stoller was elected editor of the fourth district, and later attended a conference at Madison. Several of the F. H. A. girls participated in the Kewaunee County Style Review. After winning first prize in that event Gloria Schmidt entered the State Contest and won second prize.

Some of the social activities of the F. H. A. were: initiation, joint party with the F. F. A., serving of F. F. A. banquet, and the annual style review. This year's Christmas project consisted of making friendship boxes to be sent to fellow students in foreign lands. The boxes were decorated and filled with items that are scarce overseas. Two girls, Ramona Stade and Verna Stoller, received awards for outstanding work in their home project. Joyce Sibilsky was given honorable mention.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Since this national organization was introduced to Algoma, membership has been increasing yearly, until the 1946-47 membership has reached forty. The officers are: president, Gerald Wagner; vice president, Milton Jerabek; secretary, Robert Olson; treasurer, Harold Zeitler; reporter, Kenneth Burke; and sentinel, Russell Mraz. Mr. Roy Koss directs the work of Future Farmers in Algoma High School.

During the year the local chapter of F. F. A. sent the following delegates to Kansas City, Missouri: Bob Olson, Kenneth Seiler, Joseph Seiler, John Delorit, and Warren Kruswick. These boys attended a national agricultural convention. They were also taken on tours to see the city.

F. F. A. members have carried on extensive programs of treating seeds and tested a total of 290 cows. Five steers were entered at the Northeastern Wisconsin Fat Stock Show. The steers were sold at an average of thirty cents per pound. Other activities of the F. F. A. included the annual Parent and Son Banquet and a vacation at Waupaca. The basketball team played a total of thirteen basketball games, winning nine. Greenhand initiation was exchanged with the Oconto Falls Chapter. For the coming year an even bigger program is planned and continued progress will be made until the Algoma Chapter has reached the highest possible goals.

RAIDERS DOWN WOLVES IN OPENER

Outmanned and outclassed by a big Two Rivers eleven the Wolves lost their opener 32-6. The Raiders scored on the opening kickoff on a long run by Lynch, their quarterback. The Wolves came back fighting but were stopped on the Raiders 20 yard line. Two Rivers scored twice again before the half. In the third quarter they counted for two more touchdowns on an end sweep and a pass. Algoma's lone counter came in the last quarter on a pass from Zastrow to Durst.

Grindhouse Season

WOLVES TROUNCE INDIANS 25-0

The Wolves counted first on a 60 yard march in the first quarter with Dee Durst scoring on a line plunge. Their second marker came when Arnie Blahnik fell on a Kewaunee fumble in their end zone. The third touchdown came when Bob Zastrow blocked a punt and Arnie Blahnik picked it up and raced across the goal line. Late in the fourth quarter Algoma scored again with Leon Younk lugging the ball over on a line smash. This game was played in mud with rain falling during most of the game. Durst added the extra point after the second touchdown.

WOLVES HELD TO DEADLOCK WITH DE PERE

Playing on a hot summer-like afternoon Algoma was held to a 13-13 tie. DePere scored first in the initial period after a pass and a few long runs. The Wolves fired up and came back to score on a pass from Zastrow to Younk. Durst scored again on an off tackle play before the half ended. The Redbirds came back to score in the third stanza making the score 13-13. By missing the extra point the game stayed tied to the final whistle.

ALGOMA TIES MENASHA

Playing under lights for the first time and scoring two touchdowns in the last eight minutes the Algoma Wolves tied the Menasha Bluejays 13-13. Menasha scored first on a pass interception and a runback of 80 yards. They scored immediately after this on a short pass after they had intercepted an Algoma aerial. The final period Algoma scored on a pass from Younk to Blahnik and on a pass from Zastrow to Younk. The Wolves missed the first extra point but Zastrow converted the last one to tie things up. The Algoma line was credited with stopping Menasha for the whole second half.

FUMBLE COST WOLVES VICTORY

Two fumbles inside of Oconto Falls' 10 yard line cost Algoma's Wolves a victory. The Falls started the scoring on their first drive at the Wolves goal but missed the extra point. In the second quarter Algoma drove to the five yard line but fumbled on an end around play. Again in the third quarter they drove within inches of the goal but fumbled again. They finally scored in the last two minutes of the game on a long pass from Zastrow to Younk. The try for the point was blocked and the score remained 6-6.

WOLVES DROP HOMECOMING GAME

Algoma's Wolves were bested by a fast stepping Oconto team 20-7 in a game played in mud. Oconto scored first on a pass. Algoma came back and was in scoring position as the half ended. Oconto scored again the third quarter on a long punt return. They again scored when they intercepted one of Zastrow's passes. The Wolves counted in the last quarter on a short pass from Zastrow to Durst. Bob Delain added the extra point.

WOLVES SPOIL BAY'S HOMECOMING

Scoring 26 points in the first period and playing the best game of the year Algoma spoiled the Cherrylanders' Homecoming to the tune of 38 to 6. Algoma scored on its first play on a pass from Zastrow to Younk. They scored again after a long drive with Zastrow going over on a quarterback sneak. Another score came quickly on another pass from Zastrow to Younk. After Gerald Wagner had intercepted a Bay pass Zastrow connected on an aerial to Haegele for another touchdown. Before the half ended Zastrow threw another short pass to Younk who raced 45 yards for the score. The only score of the second half came when Zastrow intercepted a pass and raced 80 yards for a touchdown. The Algoma line did an amazing job in stopping the Bays all afternoon. Durst and Delain each added an extra point. St. Bay scored their touchdown on a 30 yard pass the last play of the game.

BASKETBALL TEAM

ALGOMA 28—TWO RIVERS 38

The Wolves lost a hard-fought game to the Raiders with the final score being 38-28. At the half Algoma led 15-13, but a third quarter rally saw the Raiders pull away to win by a comfortable margin. Wagner led the Wolves with eight points. For the Raiders, Bruemmer netted a total of 16 points for high man of the evening.

ALGOMA 45—OCONTO FALLS 18

Algoma took its first conference victory by a wide margin defeating the Panthers 45-13. Algoma's sharp defensive play held the Falls without a field goal in the first half. Zastrow led the scoring with a total of 10 points. Algoma's shooting was not up to par, but excellent control of the rebounds and a tight defense proved to be the margin of victory.

ALGOMA 39—KEWAUNEE 23

The Wolves won their second conference game by beating their old rivals, the Kewaunee Indians. The score at the half was 18-10 in favor of the Wolves. Excellent team work and alertness gave the Wolves their victory. High man for the night was Zastrow, who counted 10 points.

ALGOMA 44—DEPERE 26

ALGOMA 51—STURGEON BAY 27

In a high-scoring tilt the Wolves trampled over the Sturgeon Bay Cherrylanders. After a close first quarter the Wolves started pulling away. Blahnik with 18 and Younk with 11 points led the scoring. Reserves played the last minutes of the game.

ALGOMA 32—OCONTO 35

The Wolves' chances for the championship took a severe jolt when they were defeated by the Oconto Blue Devils. A bad first quarter and poor shooting were the major factors in losing. Oconto's scoring aces, Falk and Lindsay, were held to 19 points, but in concentrating on them, Zutter scored 10. Blahnik topped the Wolves' scoring with 15 points.

ALGOMA 50—TWO RIVERS 40

In the startling upset of the season, the Wolves spilled the Raiders 50 to 40. Marvelous ball handling together with good shooting, gave the Wolves a 17 point advantage before the reserves took over. Blahnik led the scoring with 15 points, with Zastrow counting 11. At the half Algoma led 24 to 18. The game was played before a huge, overflowing crowd, which was well pleased with the Algoma victory. The Wolves were without the services of Chuck Densow, smooth forward, who broke his arm and was out until the last conference game of the season.

ALGOMA 54—KEWAUNEE 26

In a wild scoring game, the Wolves trounced their rivals by the score of 54-26. This was the first time since the 1924-1925 season that Algoma beat their traditional rivals in football and all basketball games. Zastrow netted 14 and Blahnik had 13 to account for the high scoring.

ALGOMA 41—OCONTO FALLS 22

In a game which started out to be very close, Algoma pulled away in the fourth quarter to win by a comfortable margin. A large number of fouls by Algoma kept the Falls in the ball game as they cashed in the charity tosses. Wagner topped the scoring with 12 points.

ALGOMA 37—CENTRAL CATHOLIC 40

In a thrilling double overtime battle, the Wolves bowed to Catholic Central on a last minute rally. With seconds remaining in the fourth quarter the Wolves pushed in a bucket to tie the game. Durst led the scoring with 14 points.

ALGOMA 32—EAST DE PERE 36

ALGOMA 36—OCONTO 45

Still in its slump, the Wolves lost another game to the Oconto Blue Devils to drop out of the running for the championship. With a championship in sight the Blue Devils fought hard and took the victory. Younk led the scoring with 15 points.

ALGOMA 37—MENASHA 42

The Valders Vikings, who beat Algoma in their first tilt, were eliminated from the tournament when they were defeated by Two Rivers. In their first game the Wolves failed to show the Algoma fans the kind of ball playing they had seen earlier in the year. These were final games for seven seniors on the Wolves' squad.

BASEBALL '46

Coach to Science Class: "We wandered from the lesson today but tomorrow I'll hold you closer."

Ethel W.: "Give me a synonym for the word man."

Shirley K.: "WOLF."

Jag: "Did you have any luck on your hunting trip?"

Ed W.: "I'll say I did. I shot seventeen ducks."

Jag: "Were they wild?"

Ed W.: "No, but the farmer who owned them was."

Mr. Koss: "What do they raise on farms?"

Vernon S.: "Kyds."

Marvin K.: "My feet are sticking out of the covers."

Allan G.: "Why don't you put them in?"

Marvin K.: "I ain't putting them cold things in bed with me."

Jackie S.: "Isn't that a terrible picture of me? I look just like a monkey."

Bob N.: "You should have thought of that before you had it taken."

Margie: "What's wrong with the guy asking you if you can dance?"

Betty A.: "I was dancing with him when he asked me."

Don T.: "Did you tell that friend of yours to stop mimicking me?"

Jerry B.: "Yeah; I told him to stop acting like a fool."

Jean H.: "I'm going to speak my mind!"

Dick L.: "Ah, good! Silence at last."

Don H.: "My friend, you appear downcast. What's the trouble?"

Bodo G.: "It's my future."

Don H.: "What makes it look so hopeless?"

Bodo G.: "My past."

At a school dance, a girl from Sturgeon Bay noticed Dee Durst wearing an unusual identification bracelet. She took hold of his wrist and read the engraved warning: "Hands off! He's mine! Carole."

Tom A.: "Gloria said she'd be true to the end."

John M.: "Sounds good."

Tom A.: "But I'm a quarterback!"

Mr. Thorpe: "When two bodies come together violently they generate heat."

Bob W.: "Not always, I hit a guy once and he knocked me cold."

Don T.: "What's the name of the book you're reading?"

Ken S.: "It's entitled 'What Twenty Million Women Want'."

Don T.: "Let's see if they spelled my name right."

Wanted by Ken B.: "Man who is broke on Wednesday and paid on Friday to exchange loans with man who is paid on Wednesday and broke on Friday."

Chuck D.: "Father can you sign your name with your eyes shut?"

Mr. Densow: "Why certainly."

Chuck D.: "Then shut your eyes and sign my report card."

Leon: "I worked hard on that theme and I don't think I deserve an F."

Mr. Herold: "Neither do I, but it's the lowest mark there is."

As the boys leave for school you can imagine this letter:

Dear Mom,

They are making us write to our parents.
Love, Arnie

Malley E.: "I'm writing an essay on why teachers should receive more pay. That ought to pass me in English."

Don P.: "So that's your new overcoat. Isn't it rather loud?"

Bob N.: "Yes, but I plan to wear a muffler with it."

Wallace H.: "If I'm studying when you enter, wake me up."

Junior Holtz (in geometry): "I like those acute angles we're studying, but I like a cute figure even more."
