FOREWORD

From Lake Michigan to our outer boundaries, young people of the community come to A.H.S. to further an education that will enable many of them to return to the community and serve it well.

The story of their educational progress during the school year 1958 - 1959 we share with you in this latest volume of the SCROLL.

Principal's Message

Much is being said and written about our public schools. Everything that is said has some truth to it. In some communities the quality of education is quite limited. In other communities the quality of education meets every demand of the severest critics. In all cases the quality depends, in large part, on what the citizens of the community want and demand.

The students of Algoma can well be proud of the school facilities and the educational offerings made possible by our able Board of Education and the cooperation of the citizens of the school community. Their desire for progress and their willingness to support a good educational program will have a marked and lasting influence on the lives of many in the years to come.

As your administrator, and as a citizen of this fine community, let me extend to the students and adult citizens of the Algoma school district a challenge to use the school facilities and educational opportunities to the fullest extent. May you also continue to promote the same fine progress our school has shown over the years and help us to maintain the high standards achieved.

STUDENT COUNCIL. STANDING: J. Sibilsky, G. Delorit, M. Muench, L. Lienau, J. Guth, Mr. Cornell. SEATED: J. Novak, R. Slaby, G. Hettiger, J. Schmiling, J. Meverden, C. Delorit, J. Muench.

Student Council

Student Council met twice a month with Mr. Cornell as adviser. Gary Hettiger was President; Robert Slaby, Vice-President; Jane Sibilsky, Secretary-Treasurer. The membership consisted of two elected members from each of the four classes, plus the president of each class. The project planned was to assist in a CP campaign.

The aims of the Student Council were: to provide opportunity for the discussion of school activities and for determining the collective will of the student body; to promote a better understanding of the privileges and duties of democratic citizenship; build better school morale; to assist in promotion of desirable school activities; to promote the welfare of the students, faculty, and school community; and to act as a liaison body between class groups or other organizations and the school administration.

Dedication

In this year of progress, with the accent on exploring the unknown and advancing in many fields of endeavor, we, the Class of 1959, dedicate this edition of the "Scroll of the Wolves" to the Algoma community which has given us many modern facilities for our education.

OFFICE SCENE -- Mr. Cornell, Miss Rivers

BOARD OF EDUCATION

W. Scott Canney, Marvin Krause, Walter Schmeling, Herbert Stephenson, Mrs. C. A. Ackerman.

Board of Education

HERBERT STEPHENSON

Have you ever stopped to consider how important the Board of Education is in the life of the school? Some of their many contributions are guiding our school administration, striving to furnish modern facilities for education of Algoma's youth, maintaining high standards and adjusting the curriculum to changing needs.

We, the Class of 1959, wish to sincerely thank each individual member of the Board for our many excellent opportunities.

IN MEMORIAM

On March 11, 1959, Jane Muench, a senior, passed away after a brief illness. She was born on October 10, 1940, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Muench of Algoma. Jane was active on the School Daze Staff and Annual Staff, was a member of the Student Council, a member of the A. H. S. Band, Drama Club, and also participated in numerous activities.

Her winning smile, her congenial, friendly way with people and her willingness to help do the job made Jane a dear friend of all of us.

Football Season Proves Successful

The Wolves opened the season at home by defeating the West De Pere Phantoms in a non-conference tilt. The Phantoms took the lead in the first half, but the Wolves came back to win in the second half 12-7.

The Wolves got off to a good start in their Northeastern Wisconsin Conference opener by downing Seymour 25-0. The Wolves outplayed the Seymour Indians on the ground and in the air. The Wolves scored in the first, second, and twice in the fourth.

Algoma's Wolves spoiled Pulaski's Homecoming by defeating the Raiders 13-6. Pulaski scored early in the game but the Wolves came back in the second half to take it.

Algoma continued its winning ways on home ground by stopping the undefeated East De Pere Redbirds 12-0. The Wolves hit paydirt the first time they got the ball. The second touchdown came late in the second quarter.

The Wolves suffered their first conference loss at the hands of the Preble Hornets by the overwhelming score of 42-12. Algoma's only touchdowns came in the third quarter, the first on an end-run by Gary Hettiger, and the second on a pass from Hettiger to Jack Neubaer.

Homecoming for the Wolves was a big success. The Wolves pounded out a 38-14 victory at the expense of the Oconto Blue Devils. Algoma scored three times in the first quarter, on an end run by Randy Gomoll, a plunge up the middle by Dick Novak, and a 76 yard punt return by Gomoll. Early in the second quarter Gary Hettiger scored on a quarterback keeper, with Jack Neubaer completing the first half scoring on a pass interception. Algoma's last touchdown came late in the fourth quarter on a pass from Gomoll to Neubaer.

The Algoma Wolves were handed their second loss of the season, as the Sturgeon Bay Clippers downed Algoma by the score of 26-13. The Wolves' touchdowns came on short plunges up the middle, the first by Gary Hettiger and the second by Dick Novak.

The Algoma Wolves ended their 1958 season with a 31-7 win over Kewaunee. The Wolves scored on a pass to Jack Neubaer and a run up the middle by Dick Novak in the first half. In the second half Randy Gomoll scored on a punt return. Neubaer got the last two touchdowns on a pass interception and a pass from Gary Hettiger.

Music Hath Charms

"FORWARD MARCH"

The concert band members attended the music festival at East De Pere in May, 1958. Algoma received a first in the Class B concert contest. The solo-ensemble contest entries received fifteen first awards in Classes A and B. Twenty-four people went to the State Music Festival at Madison.

In the fall, the band members elected the following officers for this year: Dick Schneider, President; Bob Pagel, Vice-President; and Jeanette Entringer, Secretary. Dick Schneider and Orrin Zirbel were appointed quartermasters.

The band activities of the year included attendance of the U. S. Marine band concert at Green Bay, an exchange concert, the music festival at West De Pere, three concerts, and appearance of the band at all home football and basketball games.

"SAY IT WITH SONGS"

The 1958 - '59 chorus, with a membership of thirty-eight students under the direction of Miss Luebke, put on its annual Christmas Concert, December 14, 1958.

Other activities included a Pop Concert, Spring Concert, and the Music Festival. The 1958 Music Festival was held at East De Pere. The Chorus received a second rating. Five groups -- two solos, a duet, a quartet, and a boys' quartet received star ratings.

Officers elected were as follows: Sue Heuer, President; Judy Feld, Vice-President; Carol Raether, Secretary; Stan Schmidt, Treasurer; and LeRoy Sobania, Club Reporter. Beverly Krueger was the accompanist.

"Future Leaders in Agriculture"

The Algoma Chapter, composed of sixty-three members, elected the following officers for 1958 - '59: Don Dumman, President; John Olson, Vice-President; Lloyd Wolters, Secretary; Kenneth Draves, Treasurer; Richard Schneider, Reporter; Lester Tebon, Sentinel; and Mr. Roy R. Koss, Adviser.

AT WORK -- R. Schneider, Reporter; L. Tebon, Sentinel; Mr. Koss, Adviser; D. Dumman, President.

Leadership events of F.F.A. were: county and state fair exhibitions, Northeastern livestock show, officer training school, the Green Lake Convention, Junior Dairymen's Association state convention and leadership meeting, and the F.F.A. speaking contest. Mr. Koss was a member of the executive board of the Wisconsin Vocational Agriculture Teachers' Association.

Principal projects were the twenty-fifth annual Parent-Son Banquet on November 4, a rat and mouse campaign, calendar sales, certified seed was sold, and four thousand reforestation trees were planted. The boys' annual trip was to Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin.

Special achievements and awards were the nomination of three Wisconsin Farmer Degrees, a winning Homecoming float, national recognition of the Chapter as being superior in the nation, and having the best cattle and hog showmen in the county for the third consecutive year. Seven of the fifteen Agriculture seniors are obtaining higher education in their field.

SCHOOL SONG

It's your school and it's my school,
We'll fight to bring it fame
And to show we have the spirit,
We'll be at every game.

We fight fair and we play square
And proudly we confess
The man who cowers at defeat
Is not in A. H. S.

WIDEN YOUR WORLD

ORDER! SERVICE! NEATNESS! These are the goals of tomorrow's librarians. This year there was a group of sixteen, under the supervision of Miss Magada, working toward these goals. The Library Club once again made scrapbooks to brighten up the hours of hospital patients. They also had a campaign to increase the circulation of books and to get students to pay their library fines on time. At the end of the year the worthy librarian assistants received pins for their work. The officers this year were: President, Kay Jacobs; Vice-President, Sharon Dahms; Secretary-Treasurer, Beverly Laverenz; School Daze Reporter, Kathy Tlachac; and Scroll Reporter, Karen Buege.

LET'S TALK IT OVER

Student Forum members, who met twice a month, presented pro and con treatment of significant issues. Miss Higgins directed this discussion club which elected Richard Schneider, President; Gary Delorit, Vice-President; Judie Anderson, Secretary; and Nelson Gigstad, Treasurer.

The forty-three club members formed committees to "talk over" teen-age problems, national and world affairs, pen pals, movies and TV, sports, and travel experiences. Understanding the news included finding what's behind the headlines.

"JUVENES ROMANI"

The Latin Club, under the direction of Mr. Nass, included twenty members, most of them being first year Latin students. The officers were: Joyce Novak, Pontifex Maximus (president); James Guth, Tribune (vice-president); Janice Canney, Censor (secretary); and Dan Lienau, Questor (treasurer).

The highlight of the year was the annual Roman Banquet held each year in the spring.

"SHOOT FOR THE STARS"

The Astronomy Club, which was under Mr. Raab's direction, had various activities but one main objective -- to promote interest in astronomy among the students of A.H.S. and the general public. The largest project undertaken by this club's members was the building of telescopes. Other activities included the observation of the moon and other planets and the photography of important stars and constellations.

The sixteen members were led by James Guth, President; Dan Lienau, Vice-President; and Mike Sibilsky, Secretary-Treasurer.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club was organized for the purpose of promoting interest in photography. Mr. Gerald Thielke instructed this club of fourteen boys and girls in a variety of projects including the developing of films and the printing and enlarging of pictures. At the first meeting the following officers were elected: Bob Pagel, president; Dave Andre, vice-president, and Carol Birdsall, secretary-treasurer. Meetings were held every other Thursday evening.

DEBATE

The debate topic this season was Resolved: "That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British Educational System." The members of the "A" team included Virginia Feld, Marlyn Marquardt, Louise Rutz, David Arneson, Marcy Schmidt, Gary DeNamur, and Paul Schley. Practice debates were held at Kewaunee and Luxemburg. In December, debaters attended an invitational meet at Two Rivers and were host to Kewaunee, Seymour, and Preble. On January 31, Algoma met at Green Bay West for the district tournament of the National Forensics Association. The League debate contest was held at Preble on February 7.

JOURNALISM CLUB

The paper and ink experts have been busy keeping everyone up to date with news, sports, and features during the past year. The sixty-five members of Journalism Club were on their toes giving the students the benefit of their efforts. The elimination this year of the local advertisements has simplified the task of publishing the nine issues of the "School Daze."

The advisers were Mrs. Waterstreet, Mr. Wilbert, Miss Krebs, Mr. Nass, Miss Leege, and Mr. Raab. Students who headed the staff included Gail Bohman, Editor; Gary Delorit, Associate Editor; Donna Gilson, Sports Editor; Jane Muench, Feature Editor; and Kay Groessi, News Editor.

SPOT-LITES

The aim of the drama club was to give all students in the school a chance to partake in some phase of speech work - dramatics or forensics. Mr. Nass was the adviser of this twenty-five member club. The officers included Jane Sibilsky, President; Lorelee Schuster, Secretary; and Carol Raether, Vice-President. Each member was required to prepare some project for the forensic program such as giving a declamation or doing interpretive reading. The goal of the Spot-Lites was to have Algoma represented in all fields of forensics at the contest in the spring. At the end of the year awards were given for achievements in speech work.

G.A.A.

The G.A.A. was one of the more "active" clubs on the school campus. Its forty-two members were headed by its officers: Lorelee Schuster, president; Mary Muench, vice-president and treasurer; Gail Bohman, secretary and club reporter; Jean Kohlbeck, point chairman, and Miss Leege, adviser.

Team sports participated in on Monday nights, included soccer, basketball and volleyball. Activities in which some of the girls took part were tennis, skating, bowling, hiking, and swimming.

Two annual events are the basketball game with the D-K County College and the club picnic. A new event this year was a basketball tourney with the local F.H.A. Club.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

Coach McKenna was the director of this organization which consisted of twenty-one boys who were major letter winners. The meetings were held every third Tuesday, and were led by its president, Gary Hettiger. Other officers were Dick Novak, vice-president; and Tony Bultman, secretary-treasurer.

This year the club purchased the film used for taking movies of football games in order to detect errors made during playing action. These movies undoubtedly helped to make our team successful. The senior members of the club were entitled to attend major sports activities, such as a Milwaukee Braves' game.

Recording School Progress

The 1959 Scroll contains the story of a year. In these pages are pictured the events and occurrences of the school year of 1958 - 1959. Herein are the pictures of you and your classmates, captured for an instant -- preserved for a lifetime.

The Scroll tells the story of you - a wondering freshman, a busy sophomore, a confident junior, a proud senior. Our aim has been to tell this story in a direct and complete manner. We of the Annual Staff hope that in the narration of this story we have achieved our aim.

Junior Class Play, "Snowbound."

"SNOWBOUND"

This unique, three-act comedy was made a success by eight of the Junior girls. The setting of the play was a small hunting shack in the Adirondacks where the girls found themselves marooned during a blinding snow-storm. An escaped convict was ready to murder the first person who attempted to find help.

The cast consisted of Ann Neesemann as Sara, a practical-minded nurse; Jane Sibilsky as a vivacious stenographer; Joyce Novak as Mrs. Henderson, an over-bearing and complacent person; Judie Anderson was disguised as Frank, the bus driver; Judy McCosky portrayed Queenie, a middle-aged burlesque queen; Carolyn Heuer was Aurelia Shore, a tall blonde in her twenties; Diane Matuszak was a little kidnapped girl; and Maren Gruendemann played Old Mag, a hermit lady. Kathy Kohlbeck and Ellen Brice assisted Mr. Nass in coaching the play.

"The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners"

The Senior Class play dramatized the contributory negligence of the people of Carson Corners which resulted in an accident which caused the death of a young student, Billy McGinnis, portrayed by Jack Olson. Gary Hettiger played the part of Peter Kovalesky, the school janitor on trial for the murder. Lynne Harmann took the part of Miss Frank, the absent English teacher, whose testimony helped prove Kovey's innocence. Dick Lohrey was the painter, a friend of the McGinnises.

Don Dumman portrayed the part of the student judge. Jim Novak was court clerk; Dick Novak, prosecuting attorney, and Karen Swoboda, lawyer for the defense. Student testimonies were given by Mark Kohlbeck, Jeanette Entringer, Margie Detjen, Jane Muench, Sandy Zettel, and Donna Gilson. The parent jury consisted of Tony Bultman, Virginia Feld, Lori Schuster, Duane Wians, Bill Marquardt, Gail Bohman, Dick Schneider, Kay Groessl, Sandy Serrahn, Don Toppe, Jean Kohlbeck, and Dennis Bohman. Mr. Nass was assisted by Jane Muench and Sandy Serrahn as student directors.

"HAPPY JOURNEY"

Pantomiming was the main feature portrayed in the one-act play, "Happy Journey to Trenton and Camden," presented by the speech class. The play not only received first place in the elimination contest here against two other local plays, but rated a first in the play-off at Algoma on October 23, 1958, against Preble and East De Pere. The cast then traveled to New London on November 1 for the district conference where they received a B plus.

The plot was centered about a family who took an imaginary trip in a make-believe car. No stage scenery was used, and there were very few props.

The cast consisted of Jean Kohlbeck as Ma, Richard Schneider as Pa, Sandra Zettel as the younger daughter, Carolyn; Margie Detjen as the older daughter, Beulah; Gary Hettiger as the son, and William Marquardt portrayed the part of the stage manager. Miss Crane was the adviser and Donna Gilson was the student director.

Other one-act plays which participated in the local contest were "Sorry, Wrong Number" and "Finger of God," coached by Mr. Nass.

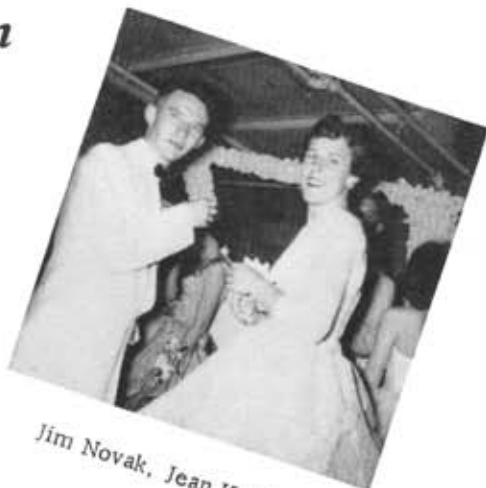

"SORRY, WRONG NUMBER" -- BACK ROW: Mr. Nass, L. Sobania, L. Lienau, S. Schmidt. FRONT ROW: L. Bero, D. Hostak, M. Servais, K. Swoboda, J. Feld, J. Gietz, S. Swoboda, M. Busch.
