Foreword

In a few years, many of us will have trouble associating the names of our classmates, with their pictures. At the moment we imagine that this seems hard to believe--but it is true. The time has come when we must go out into the world and seek our places. From our warm and secure homes, we must travel into a strange, frightening, and yet wonderful world. The going will be rough and there will be many difficult times; but still we must continue forward in the continuous struggle for recognition. Next year, some of us will be in school, others will be working, and still others may be fighting to keep this country free. But no matter what our call might be, we shall answer and come forth with an excellent performance. For this reason, the theme of the 1967 "Scroll of the Wolves" is "WE BELIEVE." For we, the 1967 Annual Staff, do firmly believe that the 1967 graduating class of A.H.S. will come forward and be counted--and will become an important part of tomorrow. Thus, this theme follows and points out this belief in ourselves and expresses our gratitude to those who have taken the time to try to understand us and to these same people who have helped us in so many ways.

In conclusion, we would like to say that though we have no control over what the future may hold in store for us; we do have control over what you will remember of the past. And so, we sincerely hope that in this, the 1967 "Scroll of the Wolves" you will find the best memories and events of the school year.

Thank you,
1967 Annual Staff

BOARD OF EDUCATION--STANDING: M. Krause, N. Daul, L. Ferris, J. Halada, Jr. SEATED: J. Schwedler, J. Slaby, Mrs. C. A. Ackerman.

Board of Education

Although often times little known by high school students, the Board of Education plays an important role in every graduate and underclassman's life.

The Board has made, and will continue to make, many important decisions involving not only the lives of the graduating class this year in 1967, but also the classes of the future as well.

Because of this, we, the Senior Class of 1967, wish to thank the Board for all they have done.

Superintendent's Message

And so it goes.

He entered as a freshman four short years ago and now evolves as a graduate of Algoma High School. His aspirations were as varied as the numbers of his classmates. His desires sometimes were not understood by faculty, guidance counselor or parents. His ambitions not always properly directed remained within the realm of acceptance. And now emerges a graduate -- ready and anxious -- to face the future and the challenges of further education, vocational-technical training, a job, or on the job apprenticeship, or military service.

His four years have afforded opportunities to develop and demonstrate leadership qualities. He has been given wise counsel and advice and the chance to accept or reject. His initiative has been fostered and encouraged. He has had keen competition in academic areas, the arts, sports, dramatics, and in the displaying of true citizenship. He has been motivated and has been given opportunities to motivate others to higher achievement. And he has been afforded opportunities to enjoy his sojourn as a student and to pass on moments of pleasure and fun to his classmates.

If his desires have been properly directed, his initiative effective, and his accomplishments equal to his ability to achieve he has been successful and his memories of A.H.S. will be forever cherished.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT: Miss Erdmann and Mr. Sheffy

Advice and Consent

As four years at A. H. S. draw to a close, the guidance department becomes a place frequently visited. Through earlier conferences, our hopes and dreams are discussed and improved, but with graduation drawing near, decisions have to be made. With Mr. Sheffy's guidance and patience, many seniors look forward to a brighter future. We wish to thank Mr. Sheffy for his help and understanding.

We wish to also thank the secretaries, Miss Rivers and Miss Erdmann, and the librarian, Mrs. Gehrke, for their assistance.

Meet the Press

Members of all classes worked together to present student news, activities, and opinions in the school newspaper, School Daze. Under the stewardship of Pat Bero, Editor, and Pam Hopkins, Assistant Editor, eight issues of the publication were compiled.

The news staff was headed by Candy Krause, features were managed by Mary Wiese and Linda Schwedler, and sports were handled by Ann Rutledge. Mrs. Gehrke and Mr. Bothwell provided assistance to these departments. Mrs. Rankin counseled the art staff, which was under the direction of Mark Annoye and Guy Braem. Guidance for circulation and production was given by Mrs. Waterstreet and Mr. Wilbert.

The School Daze Staff utilized a portion of its funds to send the associate editor, Pam Hopkins, to a summer Journalism Workshop at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. Participation in this course provided knowledge and experience valuable in publishing a school newspaper.

Sounds in Music

CHOIR COUNCIL--STANDING: A. Allyn, S. Holub, J. Krause, B. Granlus, M. Hall. SEATED: B. Detjen, M. Schwedler, M. Annoye, M. Braem.

The 55 members of the a capella choir gave their annual Christmas and Spring Concerts under the direction of Mr. Harold H. Meske with Brad Hoffman as accompanist. As was customary, two concerts were given, one for the public and one for the entire school.

Activities for the year included Christmas caroling for shut-ins and the solo and ensemble contests, which were held in Luxemburg during April and May. The following were elected as Choir Council Officers: President, Mark Annoye; Vice-President, Mary Schwedler; Secretary, Babs Detjen; and Treasurer, Mary Braem.

And the Band Played on

A sour note, a blaring horn, and the beat of the drum were just a few of the sounds that emerged from Algoma's Pep Band. Playing at pep assemblies and for both football and basketball games, the pep band attempted to raise spirits and instill a drive in the athletic players.

Music . . . the Universal

Superior was the rating! During the summer of '66, the Algoma Concert Band performed at the State Fair and was rated as one of nine Superior Bands in the state of Wisconsin.

During 1966-67, Algoma's Concert Band under the direction of Mr. Richard Radtke brought a better appreciation of music to the students of A.H.S. The majority of the school year was spent preparing

Dewey's Little Helpers

The Library Club organized by Mrs. Gehrke elected the following officers for the 1966-67 school term: President, Sue Tombal; Vice-President, Lynn Swette; Secretary-Treasurer, Sue Albertson; and Reporter, Grace Matzke.

Some of the many duties of the student librarian are: collecting fines for overdue books, keeping shelves in order and the library neat and clean, putting up the bulletin boards, and helping to get new books ready for the shelves. During the year the club also completed the card catalog and pamphlet file. Many of the 14 members also attended the Library Workshop at Oshkosh this October.

Young Romans

The Latin Club this year consisted of 31 members. Officers were: President, Julie LeCloux; and Secretary-Treasurer, Jane Martens. The main goal of the club was to create an understanding of Roman life, customs, and culture. Various aspects of Roman tradition and daily life were presented by individual members at the meetings.

A new constitution was drafted, and each member wrote an autobiography in Latin. The year was climaxed by a Roman banquet.

This year the Algoma Chapter of Future Homemakers of America, in accordance with its State Projects, has stressed the importance of making friends abroad and in America.

This organization is trying to help individuals to develop or create talents for the broadening of each member's activities now and in the future. To do this the girls participated in civic projects such as the UNICEF Drive for needy children overseas, entertained the teachers at a United Nations Day Dinner, made tray favors for the hospital and the old age home, and visited the old age home.

Each year a group of members and the officers attend a district meeting. This year the meeting was held at Luxemburg. Through this meeting many girls are encouraged to play a more active and successful role as an FHAer.

The slate of officers for 1966-67 were: President, Nancy Pommier; Vice-President, Pat Bero; Secretary, Lynne Swette; Treasurer, Nancy Breitlow; Reporter, Grace Matzke; Historian, Carol Breitlow; Parliamentarian, Karen Urban; and Miss Wirsing was our Adviser.

Agriculture Is More Than Farming

FFA OFFICERS--STANDING: Mr. Koss, R. Bellin, D. Hoffmann, M. Pallex, M. Paradise. SEATED: G. Mertens, D. Nell, M. Halada.

There are 52 members in the Algoma FFA Chapter this year. The seven presiding officers are Gary Mertens, president; Mark Paradise, vice-president; Dave Nell, secretary; Mark Halada, treasurer; Donn Hoffmann, reporter; Mark Pallex, sentinel and Ronald Bellin, chaplain.

The aim of the FFA is to instill qualities of leadership into each of its members. It does this by allowing the members to share in the responsibility of conducting the work of the organization.

Each year the chapter carries on various sales campaigns. Last year the chapter sold Christmas cards, lightbulbs, garden seeds and rat bait. It also carried on a community service program. The organization is also responsible for noon hour candy selling and the selling of candy and soda at football and basketball games. Each year the chapter sponsors a parent-son banquet.

The chapter uses its income to compensate for various chapter expenses. The main feature each year is the educational tour. Last year the trip was to Minneapolis and St. Paul.

STUDENT FORUM--TOP ROW; D. Cesar, J. Dier, M. Empey, C. Klessig, J. LeGloux, J. Schwedler, G. Braem, M. Hall, P. Hopkins. FIRST ROW; G. Krause, P. Rupp, A. Rutledge, J. Melville, Miss Higgins.

Speaking Up

The world we live in is not so large after all. This is what was learned by the 14 members of this year's Student Forum. The thirtieth year of the organization continued under the guidance of Miss Higgins.

The meetings were conducted by President, Ann Rutledge; Vice-President, Peggy Rupp; Secretary, Candy Krause and Treasurer, Jim Melville. Many interesting discussions were carried on this year. Leading the list were two talks on European life and culture. These were closely followed by discussions of race and the draft system.

ANNUAL STAFF OFFICERS--S. Holub, A. Rutledge, M. Dier, M. Schwedler, D. Junio, P. Rupp, S. Spaid, Miss Higgins.

Binding Memories

In an effort to produce a better annual for 1967, the Annual Staff sent the editor, Mary Schwedler, to a two week yearbook workshop at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Through this, the staff hopes that it has given everyone a better and more memorable "Scroll of the Wolves."

The staff officers consisted of Mary Schwedler, editor; Mary Dier, Sae Holub, Peggy Rupp, and Ann Rutledge, assistant editors; and Steve Spaid and Dan Junio, business managers. The adviser was Miss Higgins who gave her support and ideas from years of experience to help the staff produce the "Scroll."

Success Through Competition

The Lettermen's Club, under the leadership of Mr. Van Egeren consisted of 35 members. Officers were: President, Bruce Romdenne; Secretary, Dennis Sell; and Treasurer, Bob Bero.

In order to be a member of the club, one must win a major letter in any of the four major sports.

The club held two dances this year, and as a climax to the year's activities, a banquet was held in May.

THE ONE-ACT PLAY--STANDING: P. Hopkins, B. Wiericks. SEATED: S. Thielke, M. Schwedler.

White Iris

Under the direction of Mrs. Rocque and Mr. Haberman, the one-act play, WHITE IRIS, was produced and performed. The play, written by Roberta Shannon, had a cast of four girls. The characters were Jessamy Doone, portrayed by Susan Thielke, Marcia Doone, played by Mary Schwedler, Dorcas, played by Barb Wiericks, and Lucy, played by Pam Hopkins. The group participated in the league contest at Kewaunee, October 25, 1966, where a B rating was received. A third place was given to the play at the conference contest in East DePere, November 12, 1966.

NHS Still Expanding

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service are the high qualities that an individual must display before being considered for membership in the National Honor Society.

Twenty-six students of Algoma High School have displayed such qualities and have met the necessary specifications for membership. The officers are as follows: President, D. Daul; Vice-President, C. Krause; Secretary, A. Rutledge; and Treasurer, P. Rupp.

Student Council

Each class in high school has the opportunity to be represented and serve on the Student Council, an experience which promotes leadership in A.H.S. The Council includes three members from the previous year's freshman, sophomore and junior classes, and three new members from each class.

Projects included handling many of the Homecoming activities, and working for the PTA's Open House. This organization, under the direction of Mr. Allen and Mr. Sheffy, had the following officers: President, Robert Viste; Vice-President, Julie LeCloux; and Secretary, Marcia Hall.

STUDENT COUNCIL--STANDING: D. Rutz, M. Gunnlaugsson, R. Detjen, Dennis Olson, G. Braem, Mr. Allen, G. Miller, Sally Spaid, J. Rehnert, M. Graf, L. Koeberl. SITTING: R. Viste, J. LeCloux, Jeff Johnson, M. Hall.

Bolts and Nuts

"Have you seen my wife, Aurelia?"

Henry (Alan Hettiger) pleads with Benita (Val Wheeler) for mercy.

Algoma's second all-school play was presented December 4 at 8 p.m. The comedy, written by Jay Tobias, and directed by Mr. Don Bothwell, dealt with Rebecca Bolt (Mary Schwedler) who inherited part of her late brother's fortune--the rest was left to whomever could find it.

As eccentric as her brother, Rebecca turned the mansion into a Sanitarium for mental hygiene and accepted "any nut" who came along.

Benita (Val Wheeler), her niece, lived with her and throughout the play received visits from her sweetheart, Twink Starr (Dan Daul). Benita's problem though was that Rebecca couldn't stand the sight of Twink.

Staffed by characters played by Al Hettiger, Marcie Hall and Jo Canney, the mansion was the scene of many chaotic events when patients, played by Mark Halada, Candy Krause, Sue Thielke and Brad Hoffmann, attempted to find the money. Steve Storm, who played Rebecca's lawyer, and Dennis Mickelson and Mike Albertson, who played the two psychiatrists, also added to the confusion.

Bradley Hoffmann as Wilbur played his part to a tee.

A part of Home Ec. is to serve a meal for someone. Here Freshman girls entertain Miss Higgins.

Homecoming wouldn't be complete without the band marching, and playing, "When the Saints Come Marching In".

Catcher, Bruce Romdenne, looks worried as he consults with the pitcher about the next batter.

Every Prom has refreshments! Here, B. Nell, L. Burmeister, D. Burmeister, S. Nell, J. Stoller, and D. Stacie do the honors.

Voice of Democracy Winners: Dennis Mickelson, first place and Susan Thielke, second place.

School life is many things.

G. Bohman grimaces in an attempt to gain an extra foot.

And the band plays on . . . and on . . . and on . . .

Springtime in Paris

BLUE ANGEL-HAIR AND TWINKLE LIGHTS!

"Springtime in Paris" was the theme the Seniors used for their Junior Prom in May, 1966. Blue angel-hair and twinkle lights, the ceiling decorations, added great atmosphere to the Parisian setting. One side of the gym was converted into a sidewalk cafe, and the other side was covered by a brick wall planted with flowers. A French flower cart stood in the middle of the gym. A gazebo was the unique throne for the king and queen. As couples entered the gym, they walked under a trellis of roses. Toy poodles were sold as souvenirs.

Reigning over this Parisian-like scene were Queen Georgia Bohman and King Dave Novak. Completing the court were Sue Holub and Mike Herbner, Sharon Krause and Jeff Johnson, Peggy Rupp and Jerry Johnson, and Karen Krueger and Dale Dumman.

Queen of the 1966 Prom, "Springtime in Paris", G. Bohman was crowned by last year's queen S. Koss. King D. Novak was crowned by the previous year's king, W. Detjen.

With angel-hair and twinkle lights shining above, the royal couple and their court led the couples around the Parisian-decorated gym.

Printemps

As other Seniors look on, D. Daul and B. Detjen argue about whose way is best. Naturally, Babs won!

"Look's pretty good, doesn't it?", seems to be the question asked; but the biggest question in everyone's mind was whether or not we would ever finish in time.

The Junior girls set out to prove that a woman's job is never done.

The cooperation of the skilled hands of the Juniors on these various jobs brought about the completion of the rose trellis.

a Paris

With the flower cart as a center piece, the class worked on completing the rest of the decorations and adding the finishing touches.

The Gazebo, or summer house, took plenty of work and ingenuity but turned out to be a very different and unusual throne.

A French billboard added to the Parisian setting; A. Rutledge, S. Holub, P. Rupp worked on it.
