Dedication

We, the annual staff of 1971, are proud and honored to dedicate this years annual to Mrs. Waterstreet. A wise and devoted person in her field of teaching. She has been an inspiration to the students in bookkeeping, secretarial practice, shorthand, office practice, and typing. Thank you, Mrs. Waterstreet, for the knowledge and kindness you gave us through our years at A.H.S.

As you look back at this annual, you remember the great year of 1971. A year book filled with the memories of outstanding events. The Freshmen frustration over forgotten combinations, getting lost the first day of school and still wandering, trying to get in the school spirit so they can work themselves up to be as good as the seniors. The Sophomore still hanging in there, anxious to get their chance behind the wheel, the big day for the ordering of class rings, still working their way up but still have a ways to go. The Juniors the big day when class rings arrive, the long remembered night of the prom which they worked so hard to get up, challenging the seniors against everything in the book. The Seniors impatiently waiting for their final days in school, weekend party's, measuring for caps and gowns, senior pictures, being the head of the classes. Yes, there our memorable moments squeezed together in this book of memories. Reflecting back to the face and events in the great year of "71".

Principals Message

Did you make a difference? Did your being in school this year influence the success and fruitfulness of the happenings?

As we turn these pages we must recognize that they represent one year of our life. There should have been hardship as well as joy, for the obstacles one encounters on the road to success are the exercises that build the muscles of self-reliance and confidence. As you reflect upon the school year the knowledge that you made a positive contribution to life and living will make these memories rewarding.

Yes, we are living under pressure to be free. But freedom is not free. The price each one must pay is to become educated and to care. Care enough to make a difference.

Seniors Say Farewell

A SENIOR IS . . .

a superior being—cool, groovy,
neat

. . . and really conceited.
a dead-pan bod in Econ.
an avid fan of the magic trig machine.

a puddle of tears

at the last sports event.

a young adult—everchanging,
shifting, and readjusting.

a reflection of four infinitely long—regretably short years.

a diploma, a handshake, and the end

. . . until tomorrow.
