The Algoma volleyball season started as many others have, with one exception. Gone were many faces, leaving just one senior to play with the team.

The 1983 season was aimed at rebuilding the team. It was that, and also a very exceptional one. The Wolves started the season by winning the Seymour Invitational. They followed by finishing with a 9-3 record, for a tie with State bound Sevastopol. They were also one match behind Sectional bound Luxemburg-Casco. Highlights included the first conference win over Luxemburg-Casco, the Seymour Invitational win, finishing third in the Sheboygan Falls Invitational, and a thrilling match in Regionals against Luxemburg-Casco.

One Act Play

"The Lottery"

Once again Algoma High Schools' One-Act Play continued its phenomenal reputation by advancing to the State competition for the twelfth consecutive year. This years production, "The Lottery", consisted of 51 cast members and 31 make-up and stage-crew members; The largest number of participants that have ever been involved in Algoma's One-Act Play. Algoma High Schools' drama department is one of the best in the State, this would not be possible without the excellent dedecation that Mr. Loos has put forth. We would like to thank Mr. Loos and wish him luck in the upcoming years of One-Act Play competitions.

Seniors Basketball

Cindy Jones, Chris Kirchman

This was a rebuilding year for the Girl's Basketball team. When you lose the leading rebounder and scorer in the Conference for two straight years which were Jeanne Barta and another two-year starter, Terri Schmiling, the team has some big shoes to fill. The only starter back from last year was Lori Mueller, so that leaves four positions to fill by inexperienced people. The Girls who filled those positions were Seniors Cindy Jones and Chris Kirchman, Junior Jenny Stangel, and Sophomore Stacy Van Egeren. They, along with the girls who came off the bench did a real fine job.

The season High point was winning the Packerland Conference Championship for the 5th straight year. It is a real credit to these girls, being as young and inexperienced as they were.

At the end of the season when all-conference balloting came out, the wolves placed 4 people on the all-conference list. Lori Mueller was named to the first team unanimously. Stacy VanEgeren was on the Second team and Jenny Stangel plus Carol Knoebel received Honorable-Mention. Congratulations to these girls.

Boys Basketball- 1983-84

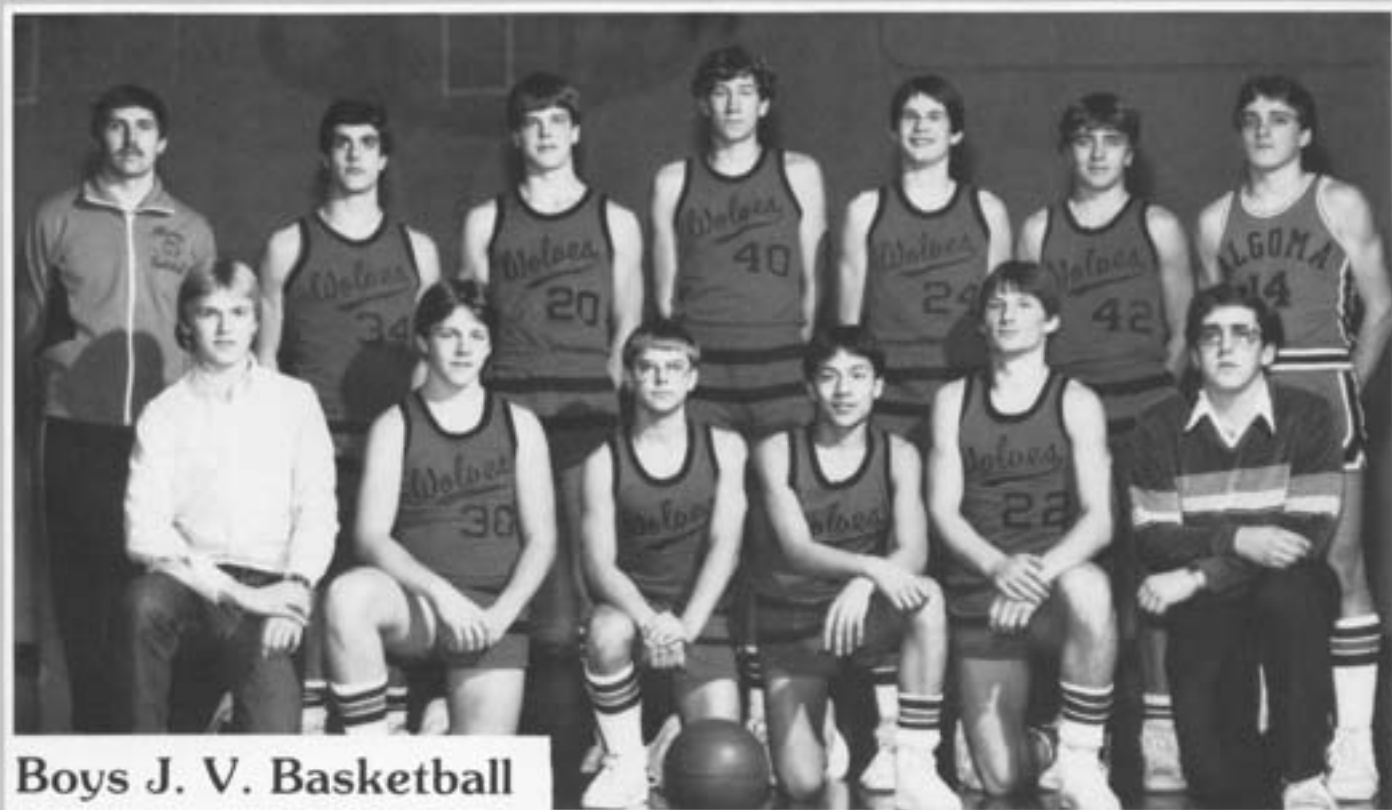

We began the year looking for 5 new starters, after losing 9 of 12 players from last years team. Our team this year probably was not as good as some other years, but this group had an excellent attitude, good work habits, and didn't quit! They worked hard for 5 months, only to come up short vs Southern Door in a overtime game.

Seven seniors and 4 juniors comprised our squad, with most of the playing time going to 8 people. The team was small, with our biggest starter, Chris Wolske, about 6'2, so we really had to work to rebound, and we were 2nd in our conference a total board, a tribute to these young men.

Statistically:

Leading scorer- Scott Hafeman
 Leading rebounder- Tim Schmidt
 Assist leader- Jim Benesh
 FG%- leader- Khris Holtz
 FT%- leader- Mark Zastrow
 Foul leader- Jim Benesh
 Most turnovers- Jim Benesh

Major problem faced by Algoma this year included experience, size, plus FT shooting, while our strength included attitude, work habits, hustle board work, and desire.

The '83-'84 Ski Club, headed by Mr. Mayheu, had another great year. The Club traveled to Snowburst and Ski Brule to get ready for the 3 day weekend. The trip was made possible with the money they earned from selling oranges and grapefruit. The Club again raised enough money to travel 1st class all the way. The club spent their first 2 nights at Whitetcap, and the last day of the trip was spent at Powderhorn Mountain. The 3 day ski trip provided the club with great skiing conditions, excellent room accommodations, a rustic sauna, and great meals. What more can you ask for!

 Third Row: Dan Daubner (Head Coach), Jamie Luedtke, Tony Bennett, Kevin Walter, Kevin Hayes, Eric Fowle, Todd Wech

After losing all starters, except Kris Holtz, the Wolves had to start out fresh this year. Along with Holtz, the only other seniors were Bruce Hoffman, and Jim Benesh.

The season wasn't as successful as last year, but the boys gave it all they've got. The weather wasn't usual for baseball either, cold and rain plagued many games. Despite all the difficulties, the Wolves really hung in there.
