All My Life

On Saturday, February 17th, the Algoma Senior Class sponsored Sadie Hawkins. The theme was "All My Life." The scene was most definitely "Disney" with silhouettes of Mickey and Minnie Mouse draped around the gym. People were given the option to wear costumes - some of which did. What started out low-key, ended with a bang! For a few hours, everyone got down and funky together. This year's Sadie Hawkins will certainly help carry AHS "into the nineties!" A good time was had by all.

The 1989 football season was highlighted by hard determination and the "Injury Bug". Led by an enthusiastic group of seniors, the Wolves saw many of their pre-season dreams vanish as the "Injury Bug" took its toll from the very first game. The Packerland Conference was extremely competitive as Southern Door went on to claim the Class Iv State Championship and Conference Champions Luxemburg Casco fell one game short of making the trip to Madison. Despite their misfortunes, the Wolves were competitive against arch-rival Kewaunee, battled Oconto Falls in a good homecoming game and lost a close game to Denmark and Sturgeon Bay. The highlight of the season proved to be the wind blown game against Sevastopool-Gibraltar as tailback Corie Zimmerman rushed for 279 yards and 4 TDs providing Algoma with their only victory.

Special award winners included: MVP- Corie Zimmerman, Best Blocker Glenn Haubenschild, Best Tackler-Charlie Tassoul, and Captain- Pat Robinson

Other post-season awards: Corie Zimmerman-1st Team All Conference Offense and Defense. Jeff Lee-2nd Team All Conference Offense and Defense. Charlie Tassoul-2nd Team All-Conference Line-Backer. Pat Wessel 2nd Team All-Conference Defensive Tackle
1st Team Northeast All-Region Defense-Corie Zimmerman.

3rd Row-Scott Demeuse, Chris Naze, Elliot Hudson, Corie Zimmerman, Chad Gehrke, Jason Glander, Cory Paape, Tim Flood, Jaris Briski, Terry Dart

The 1990 Algoma Wolves Baseball Team struggled through a rebuilding year. The team recorded only one victory under rookie Head Coach Terry Dart, an 8-5 decision over Valders. Although the Wolves finished the Packerland Conference season with an 0-11 record, and with a 1-14 overall record, they showed constant improvement throughout the season. That improvement was evident in a 7-6 heartbreaking loss to 2nd place St. Bay. With letter-winning pitchers Tim Flood, Shane Fenendael, and Steve Luedke returning, along with catcher Cory Paape, infielder Jaris Briski, and six freshmen with Varsity experience all back for the 1991 campaign, the Wolves should be back in the hunt for the Packerland Crown. Post-Season awards were awarded to: Corie Zimmerman Team MVP, Jason Rogers Team Captain, and Charlie Most Improved Player.
