In Loving Memory of Nathan Bouche

May 27, 1986 - October 3, 2009

When I passed thru those Golden Gates
I knew at last this was my fate
For there to welcome me home
Was God upon his Golden Throne
He spoke of others I loved, already here
Those whose memories, I'd always held dear
He took my hand, to give me a tour
The beauty, more than my eyes could endure
I knew then, with unwavering certainty
That I would always live in eternity
I felt in my heart such wonderous peace
For I knew my racing would never cease
To me, God gave a beautiful Golden Car
So I could race among Heaven's Stars
I put on my helmet and fastened the seat belt
My heart pounding, with the joy I felt
I laid on the pedal and never looked back
As I joined the others, on Heaven's Racetrack
Racing hard, as I took over the lead
God wanted the best, that's why he chose me

Le Trung Hieu
Vietnam

My name is Le Trung Hieu. I'm from Vietnam. Before I came here, I thought that the American people would hate me, and there would be discrimination against me, but I was wrong. The Americans are very friendly and they were kind to me during my stay.

My host mom, Miss Marian, helped me adjust to the American society. While I was here, my English skills improved and I am not shy anymore. I made a lot of good friends. This year has been the most memorable experience in my life. Thank you Algoma!

Inga Heinrich
Germany

Hey Algoma! Remember me?
In 2004/2005 I had a great chance to visit the U.S. for ten months and got to know "The American Way of Life".

First of all, I want to thank Mr. Bush and Mr. Burkard for giving me the opportunity to attend AHS.

Special thanks to all of the Burgesses. I love you guys! Thanks to my parents for making this possible for me. And finally I want to thank everyone else I forgot.

YEARBOOK

A journey through the 2004-05 school year told with pictures and stories of friends and activities.

Who me?! Take the picture already!

As we go down this road of life...

The yearbook class was a combination of fun and frustration; from beach trips at the school's beginning, to missing pictures and articles at the end. Hundreds of pictures were shot, daily trips outside of the classroom were taken to sell ads, and computer programs ate yearbook pages. Through all of this, Miss Kralapp is still asking the age old question "What's a pica?"

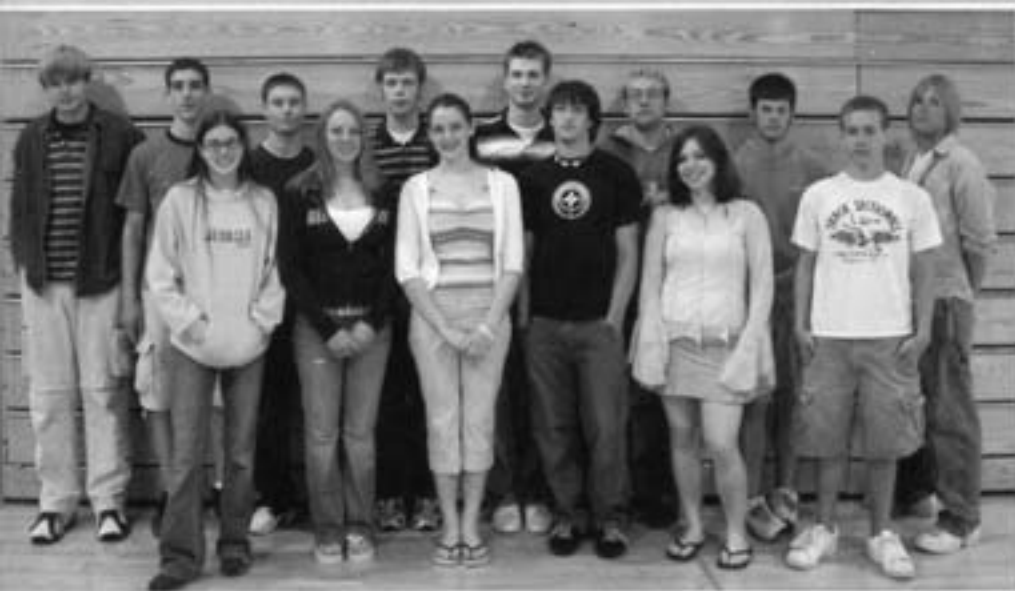

My, this is good! However, it could use a little more salt.

Heather Bultman, Michelle Paul, Amanda Heiges, Maggin Dachelet, Katie Goodwin, Carrie Ray, Jennifer Felton, Brandi Bridges - Missing: Erin Ouradnik, Katie Beckmann, Inga Heinrich, Diana Jayes

SCHOOL DAZE

A weekly glance into the lives of students at Algoma High School and the surrounding community.

Not until I have my morning coffee!

Get that camera away from me!

School Daze reports...

School Daze was a weekly paper written and published by students at AHS. This first semester project was the product of the journalism class taught and advised by Mr. Schmiling. This year the paper had an very good staff with outstanding writers. The articles ranged from a bi-weekly restaurant critique to follow-ups on former students. Thanks to the staff for a job well done!
